BACON 4213 1614, September 2. Letter

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LIBRARY

The Estimings report yet not [illegible] to plaise me yet [illegible] with the Loan of some money to serve my be-hoyes according to your order I gave the name of a brother in law of mine one Guerin works, he dwelles in my grounds lam over against the great house of Worce The goodness wherof I think him is content to be bound for you or rest for me, he men I assure is sufficient for a greater sum wt yet not or any man I engayge Full force; & one I will not be bound but he knowes for whom & how to be required.
I do hope not to stay the money longer then some xiiij days after Christmas if out of his duty wt I shall desire that yet I may depay it wt many thanks for your favour therein: And so with prayings therof I take leave (S) so rest wt lot the domaunde in lam seruyce I may desire I pray wt a man I thinke I willingly would not deserve yet.

Dewrey Hunt this second September anno 1614.

Francis Bacon.

4213

~~At At At~~

To his ~~Ryght~~ worp[ll] his verie good landlord
~~Mr Mott~~ dwellyng
at his howse att
Shrewsbyd in Engl
~~be this~~ ~~ffs~~: