The first part of the manuscript is a single system of music, consisting of a single staff with a single melodic line. The notation is in square neumes on a four-line red staff. The text is written in a Gothic script below the staff. The system is divided into two measures by a vertical bar line. The first measure contains the text "The first part of the manuscript" and the second measure contains the text "consisting of a single staff with a single melodic line."
