27 July 17 Edw III

Thomas, son of Robert Osemund of Burgate, to Wm.
Osemund his brother for a sum of money all right in a messuage with all rights and appurtenances in Burgate in the street of Mosehale between the messuage formerly Robert de Codham's on the west and the messuage of Robert <sup>named</sup> Osemund, their father, on the east and abutting toward the north on Mosehalegrene, and on the south on the croft of their father and the croft of Alan Crowe. Witnesses: Richard de Burgate, Peter Onewyne, Robert le Chapman, Alan Crowe, John Jay, William de Wynefeld, et al. Burgate
