

My Lady Bacon hir bill

Item sent by my man to Culforde the 21th of December

Anno Domini 1594 one pare of stockinges for your yongest daughter price-----ij s vi d

Item for knittinge and dyinge the footboyas stockinges----- xx d ~~Item delivered to M^m Ann for your Ladyshipp half a dosen of~~

kni ij s

Item for knittinge and dyinge of your footeboyas stockinges and halfe a pounce of yearne that I put into them-----ij s iv d

Item sent by my sonne to Culforde the vjth of marche Anno Domini

1594 two paire of stockinges price-----v s

Item for dyinge of M^s Jemima hir hoose ----- vj d

Sume xiis xiiij d

As for your Ladyshippes gloves I pray you send me what you please for them----- xvi d

Sume is xiij s iij d payd & discharged this xij^{te} of Avill 1595

My Lady Bacon has left.

I have sent by my man to Cusford the viijth of December A^o Dom 1594 one pair of stockinges for your youngest daughter price 2

ij^s viij^d

Item for knittinge and dymge the footboyes stockinges 2

xx^d

~~I have sent by my man to Cusford the viijth of December A^o Dom 1594 one pair~~

Item for knittinge and dymge of your footboyes stockinges and halfe a pende of yelowne that I put into gain 2

ij^s viij^d

I have sent by my man to Cusford the viijth of December A^o Dom 1594 two pairs of stockinges price 2

xx^d

Item for dymge of an^e Femine. the goose 2

xij^d

Smile 2

As for your Ladyshipes yelow^e & pende you sent me w^{ch} you please for them 2

xx^d

Summe is 2 — vij^s viij^d payd C. Dis. payd this vijth of Dec^r 1594