

After my said recommendations I praye to signifye unto you that I am informed by an^e demy. that you have of late received sume agaynst him at the same place above an obligation by the said demy. And upon demy his father's bond. And you for the recovery of the same land he exchanged wth you. w^{ch} land being granted to the Duke of York by act of parliament. Albeit (as I am truly to be informed) you have bene satisfied by the said Duke of having the same land & have also bene recompensed by me & amwth extent of the said demy. & recompensed by the said demmy himself. That notwithstanding you do prosecute wth you wth the said obligation. as yet no recompense at all had bene made unto you. For w^{ch} cause w^{ch} of sume part bene made to me to gratifye an injunction agaynst you for the same of the said wth the consideration after sayd by act by cause the matter is depending before me in the Chancery great ~~debate~~ ^{dispute} & ^{dispute}. Where the said me demmy offers to stande to such order & discharge as I shall take requiring the same. w^{ch} I muche notwithstanding I have for some respect forbore to grant. And have rather thought good first by the said my letter to signifye this matter unto you. And therefore to require you (this information beinge knowen) that you will increase & forbear any further to procede in w^{ch} said suit at the same place above the said obligation. until such time as the cause may be made in the Chancery where you maye assure y^{ourselves} of such order as the Justice & equity of the said require

Lette etc if you should refuse so to do the request of this my letter I should be obliged to provide from you I would willingly take care to do nothing I trust you will take consideration. And so I bid you farewell for now for my purpose beside of my request. By Don't July 11. 64.
