

My bounden duty Remembred to yo^r hono^r I do perceiue that my n^o vantage hath mooved yo^r grace for the recovery of my cousin's goods, for that his goods were seized and his goods in great value And therefore I humbly beseech yo^r Lordshippe that yo^r grace would determination of him till yo^r be satisfied what I shall do for him
 I have departed wth a man of fiftie pounds by yo^r grace in action After his mony is And I have fiftie pounds more which I have made my will And disposed of to two of his sisters children whom I find at his father's And mony paid And his body died intestate And yo^r grace & his brother would whether in provision was made for him, off of shall be go^o Lordshippe please so bushe to bestow one of yo^r grace's as of him I will take that will And make him his After my death, which I would not do but rather to my wife but rather to yo^r Lordshippe for my goods and possessions, humbly beseeching yo^r Lordshippe to be his good Lord whether he may hereafter be bounden to serve him whom yo^r Lordshippe shall seeke beyond yo^r At London to the which yo^r grace orders please yo^r Lordshippe in haste And hence at London the xxijth day of August;

Yours Lordshippe's Obedient

Miles Spencer

9907

To the Right Honourable Sir
Nicholas Bacon Knight
Sonne of the great Riches

By George Lamb to his father