

I have remembred the full sundry unto your good lordship I have received your letters dated the 11th of December and have sent a draught of remembrance concerning the marriage between your daughter and my son. I have it desired please your lordship to understand that I have considered upon these things and have offered Thomas and George some respects I have desired. I am in such sort that it is yet to be please god to tell my son within a week whether I will that he my son may inherit my lands and your good lordship will not be offended but continue in your good lordship as you have heretofore done for the respect of and give friends are bound to pray for your daughter and my son your lordship's interest of yours to continue at the health and long life from us with you of the man you & humbly praying Margaret your wife
