

Our Duties most humbly remembered ye may like yo^r Honor to understande that we were sent immediately to Norwiche where we found M^r.
 Spenser and M^r. Aspley very well willing and ready to provide according to the assentment of your Honor, but were not in all the time that Thomas Woodhouse and M^r. Spenser desired for the one road to be taken to Norwich, and the other road to be taken to Cambridge. Notwithstanding contented to stay his journey & to returne to Norwiche and did take the knowledge accordingly as by the said with wood stande was given by the leaves may appear And afterward Thomas Woodhouse did ratify the same and putting to the said and scale, wee have thought good to shew of the doing of the same, to your Honor.
 And if there be any objection therein, that your Honor may be redressed as ye shall thinke good.
 For we were not shew gotten from Botesdale before the while after the next last day.
 And wee have sent for ye to London & have in so doinge shew required of your Honor to give Aspley shew according to the instructions And for ye to allow that shew to make a location of the shew of the ward house.
 And so, nevertheless your Honor may wante shew from shew to ye Honor therein And for the rest of the instructions with and require to be opened And your Honor may shew the same accordingly. And having the bargain to your Honor it is concluded and possession taken according to the shew of the leaves And thus most humbly wee take our leave from your Honor the xxix of February 1566.
