Our grmble Duties remembred to y<sup>e</sup> lord lordshippe it may please y<sup>e</sup> same to be aduertised that we understand by wch<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> yarly that at y<sup>e</sup> tyme of y<sup>e</sup> late awyng<sup>e</sup> on y<sup>e</sup> lordshippe<sup>e</sup> declared
w<sup>e</sup> us and after y<sup>e</sup> frende had often perswaded w<sup>e</sup> him<sup>e</sup> and gentleme wch<sup>e</sup> and soþ<sup>e</sup> that y<sup>e</sup> hit
profite and comodite<sup>e</sup> as of our rameft and quiet<sup>e</sup> of mynd<sup>e</sup>, w<sup>e</sup> oþerwise wch<sup>e</sup> never came entred y<sup>e</sup> bands we dyd for y<sup>e</sup> payment of þis a great summe of money<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> one y<sup>e</sup> yarre w<sup>e</sup> never took to retayne agayn<sup>e</sup> at y<sup>e</sup> hand<sup>e</sup> of any gentleman of wch<sup>e</sup> Consideringe y<sup>e</sup> small value of y<sup>e</sup> owne land<sup>e</sup> charged w<sup>e</sup> two roynys and also y<sup>e</sup>
then our exspectacion was and desir<sup>e</sup> is, we gumbly before y<sup>e</sup> lordshippe that we may understand what money remayning in y<sup>e</sup> lordshippe hand<sup>e</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> lesshers of y<sup>e</sup> land<sup>e</sup> during<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> maner<sup>e</sup> w<sup>e</sup> may we may knowe ons rcharge and so y<sup>e</sup> sover make þis<sup>e</sup> for y<sup>e</sup> rest w<sup>e</sup> we shal not be able to d<sup>e</sup> about ons great hinderance and loss<sup>e</sup> and that will furne to y<sup>e</sup> small profit<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>e</sup> may well affirme giv<sup>e</sup> þis<sup>e</sup> that neither y<sup>e</sup> moþer<sup>e</sup> nos<sup>e</sup> w<sup>e</sup> wil<sup>e</sup> wch<sup>e</sup> to make y<sup>e</sup> like ioyntor<sup>e</sup> of þose land<sup>e</sup> to any other in so ample manner as we have don to y<sup>e</sup> lordshippe and besyce we are donable to do ther so great a travell as to London, and for that also y<sup>e</sup> yarre man<sup>e</sup> is þis<sup>e</sup> fforȝt of us and therwroþe perswadeth<sup>e</sup> giv<sup>e</sup> þis<sup>e</sup> to be doneþre to consider<sup>e</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> aþoþre

to be fforde made therfore we ymmeis before y<sup>e</sup> good lordis grace that you wyl admitt fforde a mynge knyghtman of Sir Mervys sympton whiche is a wiche gentleman and one wycha trawell we have desyred in his behalfe therfore we wyl cause to froble y<sup>e</sup> lordis grace Nottingham dorstyngh and like as we have dealt symphie and placyng w<sup>t</sup> your lordis grace in all our daimys and reposed great confidencie in y<sup>e</sup> sonnes, even so we haue dofel accordingly and fforde we pray almyghty god to contynue y<sup>e</sup> lordis grace in longe life and myrrour of sonnes Yelben the Norwiche fforde w<sup>t</sup> of oþer 1567

y<sup>e</sup> most ymmeis and darke oratours
