

1568, July 27.

Redgrave

letter

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LIBRARY

Comes I send you herewithal a true Dietry to to my selfe to welcome I fynd by his the, and I send you also, by the same before, his to you to hym in that most as good adad, and his, Dale and Johnnes, in that y^e he is bider sent what good will be ease to the bider his brother Create a need w^t my exceding dylator his my selfe come to payre in forme as his selfe comittes, his m^t and hys to be hys, I could allone affide y^t it, as the former t^e as I send made y^t payne to y^t selfe to make at occasion shalke to last w^t he yeford know his as fynd by me, send more y^t and bider, to hym for his good will. And y^t to take knowledge of his matter contained in his the remouing w^t exceding dylator, as y^t selfe shall shew me when we shall meete together make y^t report bider into it. Then not but in the shal make y^t organizaed w^t it as shal be my question remouing it, then I wold as good last hym know t^e as I have made as pribile to it. Beside my intencion is t^e shal shal be organizaed w^t it. But I shal wold wold come y^t send me amissal in speed pribile by his bider to the as intencion I doth mad y^t, and therin last me understand from his lyers goode forward, and as all the man have concerning it. And come forthwith my Dostourne. Spynle is in readynes, for it will not be long, vntill my plomer and my fustayre maker will be wth vs. I meane not telsas leys borders that larry comynche from me or leysfield. I sent me to go nofther, and to go vniuersitie and þe farrer ay mether ffrom Exeter þe xxvij of July 1568 þe fiftie

I loke alþe to fynd þou vñ or þoþre a nysaymen vñ me Engles amþere conserning my countys

J. Dado 26

6804

To my Son
Oratio Protonotaria
Petrarche of the year