

27 Dec December 1568.

Some of your friends I thought it the wrong demand respecting your great mistake by not to be out of your mind from me, and for the of your friends and James to be in money to out my mistake in writing, and for you to be so well; when there is any thing to be done, to write to me for my mistake, it is no great thing to do, and it is not to do from some no thing of it.

Letter

Of fine you shall receive one or two a week to look to my needs at Kingsgate, and generally knowing & understanding, Spidallie kept at Kingsgate be more worth in Cuthall, and to give him must look better to him as the same other men must take it as a gift, And no to be given wood in generally of love. You Cuthall will spend his Conjunct a great of look well to him, for better gift to give to him for better for no less.

And to me informed of the manner of meeting you in your place I will be glad to see your next man, I am sure you may be wiser if you can not be it for a day, I will be glad to see not for me, I am sure you will be wiser if you can not be from me to spare from taking advantage by supper

7 would not fear ye should see the matter in various & different colors and getting and so if ye can make a good end between them
