

I finde by yr Lre that hant hath ben in yr I trust yr hath xformed the feber of Portingale, if he have not, send to hym to doe it, And as to the wateringe, leave it alone till I come to do it.

Albeit I misliked yr wyse that my men have made of this land, yet am I contented to give hym some sundrye m^{ts} for it according as I have ~~written~~ written to Boderes and Henry Nms And looke what yr can make of it above twentie markes a yeare, I am content y^e shall have to the same use. I am glad that yr mother ye most and our Godsome do well, and to yr mother and yr y^e of my selfe have the lastly recommended, and to our Godsome if you good blessing and mine, from my selfe at Exembury the 24th of Aprile is 69

Yr father,
Edw 6th

Co my sonne Margolab Barber gave for