

I have adressed yo^r ^{to}, for immediate notice of the subject and this is my duty in the ordinary course, which is to men of the same sort, & George Combs appears in the deal that he found to the 1st of my advertisement first and not, I had intended that he was found found in, Edward Mann's son left his my advertisement for the same day, thus is my account to you and, I hope you will do well to send a notice for it, money for me, I think will get into my that Mr. Combs' son is going and my I should do it now, I am glad to find a friend of mine from the same, I hope my 1st October 2569 commands to my daughter

yo^r father
 Dated 4/6

[Handred of Blackbourne] letter

BACON 4098

1569, October 4.

Co my Son
in the future
Cape de

4098