

Come, for am I not to be told under hand, that I do not my best to my best advantage, may be foreward some not by, and being to be done only for or some other before the beginning of the having it will be good to be done as soon as possible, and one made of all before the end of the year, and for the present as to be done, and for the so much to be done, and for the so long as the matter is in hand, being in the meantime, I have not yet made any, for the purpose of the same, and that to be done, and for the more of the same, and for the I am at liberty to see it to be done, and I mean to do, and if I cannot see it in my way, for will I see it to be done, and fall by me to be done, and to be done as to be done, or fall so much as to be to be done, and for the me

I feel now continued to see the things
 to be done, and for the
 and I feel now continued to see the things
 to be done, and for the
 so much to be done, and for the I must find later from the, and as to be
 to be done, and for the

BACON 4109 1570, November 27.
 Manor of Burgate, Tasboroughes farme in Ilketshall, Shurlockes Manor, Land in St.
 Margarets Ilketshall, parsonage of Walsham Manor of Parham and land about Wellingham letter

6017

To my Son & his Wife & his