

ffor Answer of y^e L^{te}, this¹⁰ to let y^e Underston that I am glad to hear of the good amendment And as to the synning of my son, I would that James South should send all workmen for the young foreman and synning of the same without carrying for any that is to be done from home, ~~then~~ ~~the~~ because I meant to find none the work is so little that it is to be done, the son that this work gets in hand, carrying my son, the better it shall please me. And as touching the foreman, I would not have y^e middle w^{ch} it will you hear further from me, I doubt not but Betheer will come to you as soon as he can, send me to y^e wife and her mother. And so fare you well from my son more to you this day of April 1571

Y^e father
J^h South

[Redgrave]

Letter

BACON 4113

1571, April 13.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LIBRARY

4113

To my friend Nicholas Baron of Regensburg
gebe + sende vns Gode