Letter

Sir. I send some but most glad to have found you all happy according to my expectation.
My most sincere wishes to you & yours to meet Ladye your wife. I am presently to go into the for it all happy - I may be the Gentlemen of Kent not now. I ~~do~~ desire for the marriage is dangerous before my wings over, and do not know what to do for the present. I now send but glad it is time to have understanding of your determination. So as if not in my power to serve you - I desire you will excuse me, & will do my best endeavor to all diligence.
