

My most honor. Cousin about a decree in the chancery with me I was to make choys of certain feates in trust, for the good of my childern and self, whereupon I made bond to make choys of you for the chief, one which tyme I have purchased the fee farm of the King, and am to remove a tenant that is in it for an imbracement of rent, and so to leas it out for ten years until my son doe come of age, these things cannot be don without you pleas to come with me, and the other feaffee, now if any doubts may arise wherein you may fear any incombrances to your self, I will seene you what way you shal thinke fit, this bearer wil inform you how all things doe stand in this busines, thus feringe I have bin to trouble you, with my best wishes I rest ever

your very lovinge Cousin John Strangate

To my Most Hon^{ble}
Goven^r Sir Edmund
