

1609, July 8.

Letter

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LIBRARY

Forward I have sent my man to you to pray you that you would send me my quart for for I have great business and for that which I did let my hand too at hurry to be paid if you have not paid it already I pray now send me it for I have very earnest need. which you know I stand in great need of robes and probably you know in hurry will trust me and therefore I am faine to go to North to by me some there with the money you sent me and therefore I pray now dispatch my man or else I shall stay for him for I have no money to by nothing will be some so hoping this is sufficient ~~that~~ I rest recommending you to god from as well the ~~rest~~ of inbye. 1609

Your very loving friend Charles Bacon

Know as by me above signed to be Say of July 8 of 1609 at Helgate. For my love Charles Bacon Esquire to me of Pearson's house

To my very Loving friend in Christ at Cedarvale you fare with me

90

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, possibly a list or notes, located at the bottom left of the page.]

4192