

1575

To the right worshipping my very good friend Es Robert Denny at burying house

To the right worshipping and
my very good friend Es Robert
Denny at burying house

Et Robert my duty remembred unto you welle the lab retived from you in my absence my^l w^l is it paid out if they have not maide an end of the house w^l in and for the comisset they be not done they shall goe in hand one monday next for I gave them a note to borrow some of the kinges offiser and they had none to speare it will be tuesday next before it be done the inside of the house be done if that woorkman w^l you sent w^l becomde I shall doe it but these woorkmen will not doe it under w^l I am my Lord I agree to man have left the twenty pound in towne but I have not retived it yet the house will be reddey against your coming up for there shall one undertake to wasse and cleane the house and then leaving you I comitt you to god. This xxvth day of August

Your very assured freind

Edward Kirkham