

E,
I have receiv'd Love by my brother and m^r Brabon so much assurance of your care and favour to me in my business, as I blush to returne you those poor thanks this paper can carry for itt deserves a great deal more, but when I consider your love of goodness for the ~~same beauty~~ I hope you will be pleas'd to accept this poor widdowes ~~right~~ mite untill opportunity ^{be present} ~~sent for better~~ I shall give me leave still to desire to continue your love and care for your poor niece whom you are like to fynd many opposers and none able to succor ^{him} but your self, of whose love ^{and power} I am so confident as I confesse itt armes me against all fears; I know I have all justice and equity on my side; but that is not of such strength in these days as to pass without friends and who therefore esteeme itt a great favour from ~~God to have one so near in blood~~ ~~and must have you~~ provided for my refuge
