

To my honorable and much respected Sister the Lady Drury at her house at Hargill. S.

My good Sister

~~Since~~ I have received your lines safe by the carrier and in them your respective satisfaction to vs concerninge thous speches it seemed M^{rs} Vance mistouke outherwise I asher you we haide bine muche mistaken but I doubt not we shall take no longe tin if we live to geve ~~if you~~ good testimony you ar not all together defawed in belevinge so well of our proclaminge in that point conferminge your desier English should surway the ground you hold of vs we will no ways be agaynst your likinge thow we did ever intend no outher ^{manner of} surway if the outher did it but with in the hedges as is the common vsse to Tennants Sister let me I pray intreat you if your self or servantes know any thinge may at this tin be advantageus eyther in generall or particular to further to the surwayer the knowleg of what is our ritte don ~~gives~~ the favor and Kindnes to let him be instructed for we desier much to make a iust and a cleare worke of what is in hande to which purpos we ar in great hope we have met with a sufficient and hon-nest mane our surwayer: When I have discharged my self of my trust to salut you with much love from my Sisters I will geve your Passiense freedom from the trauel of ^{my} scribles which shall only hold your fees ~~at this time to make~~ that which I desier to passe all your cares with all which is that out of your one worthe you commend me your lord and me as your affectionat lovinge servants of ever
