

Whereas, Since my coming from London, I have Understood, that at the last Courts holden at Redgrave, ye did agree that I should appointe a Guardian for ye during y^e Minorities: I have thought yt fittinge to appointe John Barker my servant, of the same towne, thinking him to be every way very fitting to undertake y^e. To w^{ch} hope y^e ye shall give y^e consent. I desire ye to signifie the same by subscribing y^e names. to this w^{ch} I have written.

Y^r Loving friend
Edw. Bacon

Redgrave Thu ~~19~~ 20. of July - 1623.

To Nicholas, and Nathanall Fowle.

Nicholas : Fowle.

Nathanall Fowle

Thomas Fowle

for appointment of a
- person to my private
- friend.

59

9

4231