

pej die may Anno 3. H. octavo

In the case of Bartholomew Gage and moor a fore the honorable ^{King} Comptroller William Galt Bartholomew Gage and moor of Richard Bartholomew doth deposed the mayor of the colledge of oxford in the county of Essex comptroller against mayor Richard Bartholomew moor mayor of the same and John Gage just defendant of and for certain land lying and lying in the county of Essex and Essex thereupon it occidently appearing unto the said Comptroller that mayor by assent and agreement of the said comptroller comptroller as by the said mayor Richard Bartholomew John Gage defendant as by force of arbitriment committed to the final judgment and determination of William Galt and Richard Bartholomew as arbitrators indifferently thou / also by certain of the same dearly gave determined and finally and the said Bartholomew like as appearing by the said dearly thereupon made upon the dearly of the said as appearing made by the comptroller comptroller of it may by him received confessed before the said comptroller for the affirmance of the said dearly they gave determined and finally and discharged the defendant of any days of appearance before them to make complaint the same case. and so discharged dismissed for enmore.

Comptroller