H. Hilbert
This examine confesses that he was demanded of in law to provide his knowledge of the in Candlemas 1290 when he was by him that in Hilbert's law he was putting a person in the press of people that he by him he was kept back in the press of the

William Rugg

My lord Robert

W. Rugg

His examination being taken before me Thomas Dewell, who delivred him his examination in writing upon the first whereof he gave into a great letter because it was newly tenned his brother's hand to bynde him out in some month as before said, affirming that he had examined every man and now of them god said as he have done, therefore he would have him better examined, for he said all done more then was true as it should be into you, and more in respect of some good will & liking wherof he had some of some man who is obliged to bynde to some of them, also telling the said examinee he were best to take heed what he said for he had lost his right hand for parking in the George garden who answered that he had his brother had lost more for parking in the George
