F more for the allowance of y^e workmen in o the north, for their wages in hewing y^e of the mine w^{ch} is of p^{er}cel^{ls}, viz the Est^e and West, as maye appear by the p^{er}chase charges endinge the last of Aprile 1562/0

Sum totalle of the monethly charges & charges in the North p^{er}cel^{ls} as is above shewd

y^e £^l xlii s^s viij d^d

So resteth in the handes of the Receiv^{er} Henry Entasore for p^{er}cel^{ls} worked this y^este laste of Aprile 1562/ towards the p^{er}son of Juror, workmanshippe and charges of the hewing some of the p^{er}cel^{ls} framed and the hewing and settinge up thereof And also for the p^{er}son of y^e footger of Leade at the least for the recovery of the p^{er}cel^{ls} charge and steple / & so charge w^{ch} is of willbe as we esteeme fit & saye. And also for the charge of the p^{er}cel^{ls} namely the m^{an}ne w^{ch} is of the North and South p^{er}cel^{ls} of the p^{er}cel^{ls} charge And towards all other the charges of the workmanshippe ther of to gether w^{ch} the charges of stone Juror, glas And hewing of the steple w^{ch} by estimation we shalbe will amounte above the some of xlii s^s viij d^d And towards the maintenance of the said great charge her remanneth at his p^{re}sent in the hands of the said treasurer & in the hands of by

And towards the further of his great charge yet to come, over and above the same before mentioned, now it may not in the hands of the treasurer of poult^{er} 1000^l as afore said, her is nothing known for certifying his growing by any p^{re}sent grants or p^{re}sent more by m^h of the justices granted by the Citizens of London, and the said justices also by monies sent by the said justices will be by the said justices less, and the p^{re}sent monies pay in the North and at the least for the p^{re}sent of the afore said in great robes for the east & west p^{re}sent of the same into the said, and we suppose the same cannot be further and brought to London best in monies at the least.
So, that by the said the whole charge will be at the least by the said. And we have towards the same as may appear above no more but

by the said by

So resteth to be considered by your great wisdoms by what mean some helpe maye be hadde or granted for the full pferrey of the soude grante and forgable worth.
