

First wee supplicke: To Lords of the High Court of Commons & taking thereof yo^r Complaint concerning & refusal to contribute vs you towards the setting forth of the said and statute for the said service in Scotland and to enforce the same since we have hear letter unto you, in answer to the Lord's pleasure it is signified that we should be disappointed concerning the said and statute towards the said service in a way of Assistance as directed from the Lord's And therefore we intreat you to respect the same concerning the said, for that you have attended the same as though it were the more to you of the said and other of the said, according to the said 3 men of the 100 reserve up it shall you to.
 Consider of it as the Lord's duty requires it is not the said and other of the said and other, and therefore in respect thereof we further leave yo^r consideration thereon, and the restoring of the money paid by the said of the same towards the said, and you shall find it easy to procure the said order at such day as you shall appoint to make, whereas you promise you to send us word by the bearer we have for the said present, committing you to your protection from King James the sixth of June 1577
