Gentilissimo Signore

Le invio la prima parte del mio manoscritto, perchè Ella abbia tempo a farlo tradurre, e a mandarmi le bozze. Come si tratta delle forze militari del regno, potrebb'essere, che alcuni dei termini tecnici non mi fossero difficili a tradurre in inglese: nel quel caso potrei dirigerle all'ambasciatore italiano a Londra, ovvero indirizzarle nelle bozze come, nel perier mio, si dovrebbero tradurre, per essere chiari. Ho veduto bene che dove una notizia abbastanza recente del nostro esercito e marina era stata ufficiale, che non credo abbastanza nota fuori d'Italia; ma nel caso che si parebbero troppo lunghi non avrebbe che a diminuirle; e ridurrei il tutto in due pagine

Il resto del manoscritto partirei il 31 giugno

Gentilissimo Signore

Ho ricevuto ieri le prove di stampa e le rimanderò domani. Intanto, mi pare indispensabile di aggiungere un postscriptum, e ve l'accludo. L'ho fatto il più breve possibile. Non importa che io ne veda la traduzione inglese. Sono

Sarebbe anche bene di mettere all'articolo la data 1 giugno; al postscriptum quella del 12 Luglio

Monsieur

Je vous demande pardon de ne pas vous avoir envoyé l'article sur le n° XII. J'ai eu de nombreux d'autres travaux dans lesquels je m'étais enga-gé; et d'ailleurs, il m'a fallu me promener des documents qui me man-quaient. Vous le recevrez sans faute le 1^{er} Février. J'aimerais bien, s'il est possible d'en voir les épreuves, avant qu'il soit publié.

Très complaisamment

Monsieur

Je ne pourrai pas vous envoyer pour le 10 Nov. l'article que vous me demandez car le 11. le nuit d'Octobre je m'absente de Rome; et je voudrais si ce sera possible, me reposer. Bientôt, veuillez me dire si vous vous contentez de l'arriver le 10 Décembre. Vous l'arriver en italien bien copié; et il me serait très agréable de lire la traduction anglaise avant qu'elle soit publiée.

Mille compliments

Dear Mr Canton,

Will you please add the corrections I mark on pages 2 and 9, in circles O.
to the ~~proof~~ I mailed you yesterday. These corrections are necessary to make

Yours sincerely,

My dear Miss Moore

Please let the Contemporary have the M.S. but just when you take it or send it please tell them ^{how} ~~many~~ many words it contains.

My belief is that it is too long but I can't shorten it

They may publish
it in two parts if they like. Or they may publish the first part only and I will add the end on when I republish it as a pamphlet or book.

Yrs in haste

My dear Sir,

Thank you for the cheque for Tulloch.
The paper seems to have gone down well. Several people have already written me about it: Mr. Chiffart very warmly.

Tulloch was quite a man of the world, and was about London a great deal. I am sure you would have liked him. When you were a boy, the Free Kirk leaders were much more eminent men than those of the Kirk. But the case is quite reversed now. As I keep quite apart from "Church Courts", disliking their dodgy ways, I speak without bias. Yours very sincerely,

Percy W. Bunting Esq.

Dear Sir,

I regret to say that I have been out of town for some days - and have therefore only just received your kind note -

I should be very glad to send you ^{an} article as you are good enough to suggest,
but I do not wish to say anything about Egyptian affairs

before the volumes
have been presented to Parliament -

The fact is, we know nothing
authentic about

has taken place since Lord Clarendon arrived at Lains - and I do not wish to give any opinion
on the subject before Parliament meets

Believe me
very truly yours
