Dear Sir,

I received the other day a paper by the Care of the Bishop of Dover which was not quite for good words. but so curious in a literary point of view that I offered to send it to you -

If you are as much embarrassed with too much material for his contemporary as I am for good books
We won't bless me!

Believe me

Yours faithfully

Donald Macleod

I am sending his M. S.

My Friend,

Being a Highlander I am loyal to my Chief - and as my Chief's son - ^{the Rev} ~~the~~ Rev C. MacLeod - son of MacLeod of MacLeod - has asked me to introduce him to you with reference to a paper he has written - I do so with pleasure. I have not seen the paper myself I can therefore say nothing about its merits - but I will be obliged to you if you will kindly look at it.

Allow me to congratulate you on your great success in the contemporary.
Every month seems to surpass the last.

I cannot tell you how much I enjoy reading it - & how much profit I get from it.

Yours very truly

Samuel May Jr

Sir I beg to enclose a letter of introduction to you.
I send also in separate cover an article on the contrasts between the administrations of India and Ireland.

I have written it all twice over, but feel conscious of its imperfections.

The facts at pp 25-29 concerning Irish crime statistics are discoveries of my own, yet unpublished.

I would feel honoured by the publication of my article in the Contemporary Review

It would make an article of twenty pages or might be divided into two, the first ending with page the middle of page 22.

I could abbreviate the article but I have already striven to write as if in telegrams.
Trusting that the pregnancy of the matter may excuse some harshness of style and apologizing for troubling you. I am

Your obedient servant
Charles M. McMin.

P.S. I would beg of you to return me the production if you decline it as soon as possible because I leave for India on then a fortnight. I enclose stamp for that purpose, I would prefer that my name should not appear but if necessary I would offer signature.

In any case I shall be spotted in India being pretty well known as a writer there, but I would like to run a little risk for my country when so many are quietly going to jail for her.

Cher Monsieur:

Je vous remercie infiniment de votre aimable lettre - Il ne me tenait qu'à possi-ble de faire un article spécial p^r la revue - le travail en ce moment à un volume de Morale et de philosophie qui aura pour titre: „La Sagesse et la Destinée„ - qui sera terminé de le courir de Janvier. ce qui me serait difficile d'interrompre.

Je ne pourrai donc offrir à la revue que des extraits de ces ouvrages.
Et si, par hasard, elle en désirait, je la prierai de vouloir bien s'adresser à M^r Alfred Sutro.

(National - Liberal Club.
White Hall Place - Londres) à qui j'ai cédé tous mes droits pour ce qui concerne l'Angleterre et l'Amérique.

Bien, cher Moussé, avec mes sentiments d'affection et ma sincère confiance à vous.

M. Maurin.

Dear Mr Bunting

I send you herewith my article on Hauptmann, & shall be very glad if it be considered by you suitable for the pages of the 'Furtaker'. I have had to condense, of course, more than I should have liked, but have tried to give a general idea of the man's work.

By the way, I should be grateful to you if you would say for publisher's column in the matter of Mackintosh's cheque: his work says him so well & he writes so letter that money is always welcome!

Very faithfully yours

Dear Mr. Bunting

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your cheque for £20. with many thanks. I am forwarding its equivalent in German marks to Mr. Braekelmann, from whom you will in a day or two receive a formal receipt.

Very faithfully yours

Dear Sir

I regret very much that I write as you suggest an article on Free Education

In the first place - I am not intimately acquainted with the Subject of Education in Elementary Schools.

And Secondly - I am not prepared absolutely to oppose Free Education

I quite see the danger involved in it - to the Church Schools & to Religious Education - if it is to be followed of local habitant (or town?) as proposed of Mr. Chamberlain

On the other hand
I do not see in principle these systems but that many others do.
And I think that Compulsory Education is wrong as it does not need Compulsory payment of the Parent (which is former analogue - to Compulsory feeding & Clothing of Children -) but Compulsory withdrawal

- went also of the Child or Children from the wage earning of the family - gives a fair or at any rate a plausible plea - for Free Education.

How do I think it would be in the case of of the Church. if ^{any} _{with} we write strongly against the free Education of the Poor - Let this be done - if we may - I am a lawyer - & if possible - not of a Church Lawyer - The Clergy will mistake if they oppose it as a body

I am

Faithfully yours

Dear Sir

I have telegraphed up as you wished - your letter of 2nd inst.

I write now at greater length to say - that I am very imperfectly acquainted with the facts of the Foster case - & with the contents of Lord Coleridge's & judgment. And before deciding whether I could undertake such an article as that you wish for I should wish to see the letter - as well as Foster's defence of them

- self - which I believe was an able one.

The whole subject is of course a wider one - than Fortenaud involves as you put it the relations of Religion with the Law & Constitution of the Country. It is one upon which I should not like to write hastily - & yet on which I feel - that some utterance on the side of Religion - is needed.

I might I think manage to write an article for your Review for August. if I had the material about me ready to. But I should not like to plunge myself into until I had seen them down.

In the month I really can do nothing - The piece
"The present month" is really overwhelming - almost every day in the month has its separate engagement.

I fear therefore that I must forego the early action appearing in your paper as a contributor - on this subject:

I should add - that I am & have been a Speaker & not a writer & that I hope you would find my articles if I find you are - heavy reading

Very faithfully yours

Dear Sir

I do not remember having seen the article of Arnold's Dulcino you refer to.
Could you send me a copy of it.

It might be useful to me as a reference in articles in Parliament and other matters.
Would you like me

Keep me in that sub.

Dear Sir

Many thanks for your cheque for £17.0.0
just received

I am very glad to find that your opinion of my article - I have received since its appear-ance - much gratifica-tion & dissent & disapproval for the latter of which I was fully prepared.
