Dear Sir,

I beg to submit to you an article on "Australian literature". I may mention that I have been for some years Curator of the Museum at the "Public Library, & Museums" of Victoria, Melbourne. I have been for many years a constant contributor to the Art Magazines.

The M.S. appears somewhat lengthy, but when the questions are made in small type it will not, I think, occupy more than the usual space?

May I ask that if not found suitable, it shall be returned at your earliest convenience.

Yours faithfully
Stephen Thompson

Dear Mr Bunting

Mr Bryce informs me that you have kindly said that you would be glad of an article (which I am writing) in answer to Mr Day on the next issue for your February number —

I should have great pleasure in sending it to you but I have so many and pressing engagements that I am afraid I shall not be able to complete it for your February number but if you would accept it for ^{the} next succeeding number I should have great pleasure in sending it to you

Yours very truly

Dear Mr Duntley

I received your letter yesterday - It is most suggestion - I return to London on Monday & will take an opportunity of seeing you - The recommendation is most important and yet - most difficult. I have thought much about it but have not yet been able to devise any satisfying compromise - to distinguish the direct grammar applied to individuals and the indirect grammar.

Through the agency of commissioners - yet on this the whole question hangs. I have been studying Canada with a view to writing an article on Canada and the Leprosy it teaches - but I have not proceeded very far in my acquisition of special information. I am kindly mention as to my immediate future as I am threatened with failure of eyesight from cataract

Dear Mr Bunting

I am much relieved by finding that John Morley as well as yourself is fully satisfied with the article.

I thank the additions

Made make the argument much more complete

I am very sorry to have attached the ~~first~~

print so much -

Charge me with my ~~extra~~ extra expense incurred - I have been so accustomed to cannot everything in print that I am at a loss to do the work in this

Yours

Wm. W.

I have put the proof to Mr. Nicol.

Dear Mr Bunting

I am afraid that I cannot do the Canadian Constitution - I thought that when you asked for Ireland's alternatives at once you meant to give up all idea of the Canadian Constitution as too much of a good thing - The consequence was that I could do nothing on the subject - or to collect or read the necessary books -

Yours ever
Thos

I think people will be rich of repetition as I can scarcely say much more on the question of Canada after what I have said in the former articles -

Dear Bunty

Many thanks for your article about Murren. Which I will have read to me - Unfortunately it is too late for my poor law committee which reports on Monday—

I will think about Anne Puck and consult Byce if I can get it him but I am not in favor of launching any new plan at present

Dear Bunting

Many thanks for your letter - I wrote many years ago an article in the Quarterly on the subject of Act of Sept. If I have time I will do an article upon bye and

Dear Mr Brewster, Very Many Thanks for your check for £20. I am glad you are satisfied with the article. It was a work of labor and is, I believe, correct in all points but I fear rather dull

Dear Mr Bunting

Your suggestion as to an Article on Home Rule is most tempting and I should have liked much to have written

it - but I have considered the subject and have committed some of my friends - We have arrived without doubt at the conclusion that having regard to my antecedents I cannot undertake such a task except at the risk of writing something which may be misconstructed either by friend or foe

I must thank you to accept your suggestion

Yours very truly

Dear Bunting

I cannot embark on any article at present as I am up to my eyes in light manuscripts -

I ought to say that I have not read Miss Thring's article - I am Chairman of the London (Yorkshire) Committee and she is one of the Secretaries as well as in the subject -

My dear Sir
Your letter finds me at a very busy time:
and I should not be able to write any specimen of any kind at-present. Do not think that I am without interest in your line of action. I heartily wish it well.

My dear Sir,

I should have liked to write the notice to which you allude. But at present and until the end of the month, I am touring round Yorkshire day by day, and cannot find it quite impossible until that is over. This would probably be too late for you.

Dear Mr Bunting

I send you on my article so that it may reach the hands of the printer on Monday morning. I have done my best to jibe on the agony the reference to the results of the Emin Pasha Expedition should put Standings back up & draw him.

My dear Sir,

I am obliged by your cheque (£15.15.0) received on Sat^y. It is well that Huley has
