Rec'd 10. Dec. 1792 of Benjamin Walker Esquire Two hundred & twenty five Dollars in full of my demand against the Barn Steuben which I hereby agree to the said Benjamin Walker to receive from the said Barn to his own use Brockholst Livingston

Brockholst Livingston, born in N. Y. City 26th Nov. 1757. Died in Washington City, 19th March 1823. Princeton 1774. Aide to Gen. Arthur St. Clair at Ticonderoga and with Benedict Arnold at Burgoyne's surrender in Oct. 1777. Lieut-Col. under Gen. Schuyler.
In 1807 succeeded Mr. Paterson as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of U. S. where he served from 1807 to 1823.
(Son of Mr. Livingston, Gov. of N. J. & signer of the Constitution)