Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your circular letter of the 6th instant transmitting resolutions on behalf of the Chicago Civil Service. I am of the opinion that it is easy to go too far with the regulations operating in the Civil Service tending to prohibit to its employees the right of petitioning Congress for the redress of grievances and such other matters as tend to transgress upon their other inherent rights as American citizens. I beg to assure you that I shall give the matter my most careful consideration.
