COMMERCIAL CREDIT SERVICE
at the WORLD'S FAIR

COMMERCIAL CREDIT COMPANY and its affiliated companies represent one of the world's largest independent finance companies.

In less than a quarter of a Century of Progress this Company has financed more than three billions of dollars' worth of open accounts, notes and instalment lien obligations.

Commercial Credit service is in reality an intensified and extended form of what is generally known as commercial banking. It serves that great mass of humanity who have no established credit at bank by allowing them to purchase articles of high unit value out of income. And it further serves those who having credit at bank prefer to use it for other purposes.

Financing plans of this Company are provided to cover the time payment sale of automobiles, boats, machinery of all kinds, equipment in general, domestic and commercial refrigeration, air conditioning units, oil burners, heating plants, store and office fixtures and a score of other such broad classifications, including hundreds of individual products.

Through the purchase of accounts receivable in general—open accounts, notes, acceptances—Commercial Credit Company provides manufacturers and jobbers with ample cash at all times and on a moment's notice.

The service of the Company is international in scope. It blankets the United States and Canada with one hundred and ten offices through which its service is extended.

There is a Commercial Credit office located on the second floor of the Chrysler Motors Building at the World's Fair. You are cordially invited to call at this office during your visit. Its personnel will welcome the opportunity to be of service to you and will be glad to explain the scope and operation of Commercial Credit Company upon request.
