Suggested Trips in and out of Chicago for World's Fair Visitors

CIRCLE TOURS of the Scenic West

DEPART ANY DAY

HERE'S a new tour plan for vacationists to see California . . . the Great Northwest . . . National Parks . . . and all points of interest "Out West." You can select a tour that best suits your fancy and you have a choice of many interesting combinations. There are twenty-two different routes, both westbound and eastbound.

You travel independently free from care . . . with your family or your own friends . . . reserving for yourself complete freedom of action. No matter whether little or much time is at your disposal, you will find a tour that suits your taste for one, two or three weeks, or longer if desired.

Everything is first class. Your transportation, Pullman, hotel, meals, sight-seeing and other details are all arranged in advance at rates surprisingly economical.

American Express Travel Offerings for the Fall and Winter Season—1934-1935

S. S. MALOLO SOUTH SEAS AND ORIENTAL CRUISE

The seventh in a series of attractive Round-the-Pacific Cruises in which the American Express and the Matson Line have co-operated. Sails from San Francisco January 22 and from Los Angeles January 23, 1935, returning to San Francisco April 17. 85 days. . . 19 ports. . . 25,000 miles, for $1,000 and up, including shore excursions. A real value seldom approached in cruise history.

S. S. STATENDAM MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE

Approximately 15,500 miles of cruising on the flagship of the renowned Holland-America Line fleet, with shore excursions under American Express auspices. Sails from New York February 7, 1935. Details to be confirmed. 60 days. . . 25 ports and 18 countries visited. . . minimum rate $595 for first-class accommodations; $325 for tourist class. Shore excursions optional.

S. S. VOLENDAM WORLD CRUISE "The Floating University"

Famous cruiser of the "Spotless Fleet" will sail at the beginning of the Fall semester carrying an entire faculty and student body—a veritable "Floating College Campus"—around the world, offering a full year's course of study. Details: 225 days. . . 60 ports in 34 countries. . . 38,000 miles of travel. . . sailing from New York October 4, 1934; from New Orleans October 11; from San Francisco October 27. Returning to New York May 21, 1935. Minimum rate, $1,750. Standard shore excursions, $600.

SOUTH AMERICAN CRUISE-TOUR

A 75-day Cruise-Tour Around South America will sail from New York about January 15, 1935, visiting that continent during its summer, under the leadership of an American Express specialist in South American travel who speaks the languages and knows intimately the background of the various countries visited. Splendid ships used and first-class accommodations throughout. Over the Andes by motor. Details and rates upon request.

S. S. FRANCONIA—32ND INTERNATIONAL EUCHARISTIC

CONGRESS AT BUENOS AIRES—October 10th to 14th, 1934
This splendid ship, sailing from New York September 18, 1934, will carry American men and women to the beautiful capital city of Argentina, where they will join people of all nations gathered there to celebrate a renewal of Faith in the Holy Eucharist. There will be calls at Havana, Trinidad, Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo and Brighton, en route. Return to New York is on November 4, 1934. Literature giving all information, costs and complete itinerary, upon request.

MEXICO

Escorted all-expense tours of two weeks duration, leaving in December, January, February and March.

WEST INDIES AND HAVANA CRUISES

Reservations for West Indies Cruises at advertised tariff rates are available at any American Express office, including both special cruises and cruises via regularly scheduled steamer services. Special Havana Cruises may also be arranged. Literature will be furnished upon request.

BERMUDA TRIPS

Its ideal year-round temperatures, facilities for out-of-door activities and picturesque setting make Bermuda a popular vacationland. There are sailings at least twice weekly from New York, and rates from that port vary from $72 for a 6-day trip to $122.50 for a 13-day trip, including round-trip steamer ticket, hotel and meals; also sight-seeing except in the case of 6-day trips. Trips of eight, nine and twelve days or longer may be arranged, at proportionate rates.

COAST TO COAST BY LAND AND SEA

Independent trips, crossing North America in one direction by rail and returning by water via the Panama Canal, or vice versa, are offered at attractive rates. One may start from any city in the United States, with departure date arranged to suit one's convenience.

INDEPENDENT TRIPS TO HAWAII

Independent trips to Hawaii, with frequent sailings from San Francisco or Los Angeles, may be arranged. A 20-day trip, including a 9-day visit to Hawaii, is offered for $263.75, including cabin class round-trip steamer ticket, and for $333.75 including first-class steamer ticket. Trips of longer duration are also offered, concerning which literature is available upon request.

TRAVAMEX TOURS OF EUROPE

These tours enable one to travel independently in Europe, comfortably, yet at the low rate of about $12 per day exclusive of steamship ticket. A choice of ten attractive itineraries, varying in duration from fifteen days to thirty-five days, and in cost from $175 to $444.

SPECIAL ITINERARIES ARRANGED

Special itineraries will be prepared for you, based on your individual preference as to where, when and how you wish to travel—for North America, Europe, South America, Africa, the Far East, or anywhere else in the world. Then, with your travel details arranged in advance, and with American Express representatives to meet you at transfer points, you may travel independently (alone or with your own private party), but with the same smoothness and carelessness you would enjoy as a member of an escorted tour.

On any trip American Express Travel Cheques will protect your travel funds against loss or theft
