Schedules

Rapid Transit "L" trains are scheduled on all divisions and branches at intervals which best fit travel requirements of the public. Frequency of service during morning and evening rush hours—as well as midday, evening and late at night—is extraordinary. On week-days during morning and evening rush hours an average of 3 trains every minute operate around and through the Loop destined to various terminals, while 5,511 trains are operated every 24 hours on the "L" system.

Free Transfer

Rapid Transit passengers may transfer from one division to another without extra charge. No transfer slip or ticket of any sort is necessary. Just step from your train onto the station platform at any transfer point, and board the train that goes to your destination. Over-head free transfer bridges are provided for use when it is necessary to transfer to opposite platforms.

Rates of Fare

Fares between any two stations on the Rapid Transit Lines, as far west as Des Plaines Avenue; north to City Limits at Howard Street; and all lines on the South-Side of Chicago, are:

One Way Fares
Adults—10 cents. Children (7 to 12 yrs.)—3 cents.

Passes
(Unlimited number of rides—transferable.)

City-Wide Weekly (good in all above territory) $1.25.

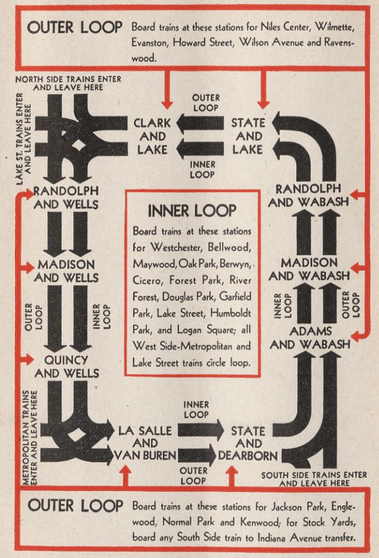

Sunday and Holiday (good in all above territory for bearer and 2 children of half fare age. Also sold 4th of July, Labor Day, Columbus Day and Armistice Day.) 25c.

Inner Zone Weekly (Good within approximate 3-mile radius of Loop. See inside map for station limits.) 90c.

One-way fares between stations in SUBURBAN ZONES BEYOND ABOVE LIMITS, are 7 cents for adults and 3 cents for children (7 to 12 yrs.).

Adult ROUND TRIP tickets are sold to or from stations in these suburban zones and stations in territory referred to above, at cost of 25 cents.

Map indicates the direction in which all trains operate in the Loop (central business district); points at which trains of all divisions enter and leave and stations where trains to various destinations can be boarded.

EVERYWHERE IN CHICAGO AND SUBURBS By "L"

Unusual Things to See!

1 Baha'i Temple—a universal house of worship. 186 feet high, of steel and glass (no wood is used!) with nine entrances, nine sides.

51 Chinatown—strange shops, strange people and unusual restaurants. A building of typical Chinese architecture is the headquarters of the On Leong Tong.

41 Hull House—pioneer settlement house founded by Jane Addams. On Halsted Street—Street of All Nations—it is the club and social center of a thickly populated neighborhood.

39 Haymarket Square—scene of one of Chicago's worst riots. In older times, it was the Hay Market, headquarters for traders.

64 International Live Stock Exposition—in Dexter Pavilion and Amphitheatre (see newspaper for dates of show). This exposition is the "class" of live stock, hay and grain shows everywhere.

47 Maxwell Street Market—an old world, open air bazaar. Booths line the street and walk; everything from turkeys to tinware is sold.

70 Municipal Airport—America's busiest! All sorts of aircraft taking off and landing—about one every 3 minutes! Its night operation is well worth seeing.

31 Navy Pier—nearly three quarters of a mile long. A great recreational spot as well as the dock for scores of passenger and freight-carrying steamers.

18 Riverview Park—amusement park with all facilities for a good time.

63 Stock Yards—Chicago's first and greatest industry. Free sightseeing tours conducted by packing companies.

72 White City—popular South Side amusement place with all the old favorite attractions and a host of new ones.

Museums, Libraries, Etc.

24 Academy of Science—featuring the Chicago Region's own plant and animal life.

49 Adler Planetarium—only one in America. A "theatre of the sky" and a complicated projector casts the stars and planets on the dome stage exactly as they appear in the heavens.

48 Aquarium (Shedd)—a $3,000,000 marine home containing nearly every American fresh-water species as well as hundreds of finny representatives from salt-water seas everywhere.

93 Art Institute—one of the 3 largest. Finest examples of art both age-old and brand-new!

40 Buckingham Memorial Fountain—controlled and operated by electricity, columns of water rise 160 feet.

26 Chicago Historical Society—famed collection of Lincoln mementoes; women's wearing apparel dating from Colonial days; George Washington's will, his sword, his spyglass; many reminders of pioneer Chicago and early America.

91 Chicago Public Library—largest lender of books, 14 million annually!

37 Conservatory (Garfield Park)—growing orchids, other rare flowers, tropical plants and trees; an authority on Chrysanthemum culture.

87 Crerar Library—largest collection of technical and scientific literature.

20 Elks Memorial—in classic architecture, this building commemorates 1,700 Elks who died in the World War and 70,000 others who served.

48 Field Museum—11 interesting acres of marble! Anthropology, botany, zoology and geology exhibits arranged in 30 spacious halls, in addition to the great Stanley Field Hall, central chamber of the Museum.

107 Museum of Science and Industry—Chicago's newest. Comprehensive and graphic models of diamond, coal and iron mines; oil fields in production; gas and manufacturing plants; generating stations.

29 Newberry Library—priceless collection of mediaeval manuscripts and rare books.

22 Zoo (Lincoln Park)—a magnificent group of wild animals. A scenic fernery and Palm House. Aviary, Aquarium and Conservatory.

Ball Parks—Athletic Fields—Stadia

38 Chicago Stadium
106 Coliseum
55 Comiskey Park—WHITE SOX
17 CUBS—Wrigley Field
64 Dexter Park Pavilion—Stock Yards
2 Dyche Stadium—Northwestern University
61 Hawthorne Race Track
34 Mills Stadium
50 SOLDIER FIELD—Grant Park
53 Sportsmen's Park
66 Stagg Field—University of Chicago

Industry and Commerce

32 American Furniture Mart

59 Central Manufacturing District—a concentrated area wherein practically every type of article is manufactured.

85 Merchandise Mart—the world's largest building! It houses more than 1,500 wholesalers and manufacturers.

46 South Water Market—a street where unbelievable quantities of fresh produce are bought, sold and delivered.

52 Western Electric Company—one of the world's largest makers of telephone and communication apparatus and sound equipment.

Schools—Colleges—Universities

56 Armour Institute of Technology
23 DePaul University
27 Lane Technical High
7 Loyola University—the Cudahy Science Hall, surmounted by the astronomical observatory, has the only seismograph in Chicago. Mundelein College for girls is at the south end of the campus.
33 McKinlock Campus—Northwestern University's downtown school with colleges of Medicine, Dentistry, Commerce and Journalism.
3 Northwestern University—at Evanston. The campus is one of the most scenic and best known in the Middle West.
66 University of Chicago—among the finest Gothic architectural groups in the world. The Chapel houses the famous Carillon; in the Oriental Institute are many relics, manuscripts, mummies, plats of forgotten cities, models of excavations, etc.

Buildings

Loop:

98 Board of Trade—a LaSalle Street skyscraper crowned by the heroic statue of Ceres, Goddess of the Crop. Home of the famous "Pit" where grain prices are regulated; a visitors' gallery overlooks this busy trading floor.
89 Civic Opera—Among its auditorium features is a stage 14 stories high.
92 Daily News—the modern newspaper plant housed in a great River Front skyscraper.
99 Straus Tower—on Michigan Avenue and commanding the length of this famous Boulevard.
