place operating as a disorderly saloon.

After paying an admission of 50¢ each we entered and were ushered to a table at north-east corner of dance floor. We ordered whiskey hi-balls which were served by a colored waiter #11 at 75¢ per drink. Upon drinking these we ordered & were served a second round of these drinks.

Whiskey hi-balls were served openly to many men & young women. The intoxicating effects of these drinks were very noticeable especially at two tables near us. At these tables sat six couples of men & women, all being greatly under the influence of these drinks. They openly displayed a quart bottle of liquor, which waiter #11 told us was "Gin". There bawled & language which could be heard all over the place was vulgar & filthy.

Many women flirted with us but we thought it best not to join them as their escorts were intoxicated. The greater part of the dancing by the sations was vulgar. Many dined the "Shingun".

A young boy about 16 years entered with a man and woman. I saw hi-balls served at this table. At another table sat a little girl of about 6 years of age, apparently accompanied by her parents. Drinks which appeared to intoxicate both parents were served at this table.

Waiter #11 pointed out a man of Jewish appearance who was apparently in charge and informed us that he was Eddie Rosenberg the proprietor.

 same operating as a house off ill-fame.

At office on first floor I met a young man clerk, who asked me if I wanted to see the girls. He called a man who gave me his name as Jos. J. Park, manager of this place.

This man, Park, escorted me to a front parlor on the second floor where I was greeted by four women inmates, dressed in silk negligee. One of these women who gave her name as Billy solicited me to indulge in prostitution for a price of $3.00, in the presence of the other three women.

When I was leaving I was met by Park on the first floor and he informed me that he would have seven more girls at the place later in the evening.

I have been informed by Inv. X that the above mentioned parties are the keepers of this place and that this place was formerly known as the Boulevard Hotel.

Investigation

We entered & took seats at south-west corner of dance floor. Here we ordered & were served with a meal.

While here I entered into conversation with one of the waiters who informed me that I could purchase a pint of whiskey from the manager at 42 per pint.

We saw a man active around this place who Inw. X informed me was Mr. Bushea formerly owner of the Belvidere Cafe 838 No. Clark St. We were later informed by an employee that this man is the proprietor of the Maunlin Range.

While here we saw two unescorted women.

same, operating as a disorderly saloon.

Visiting these premises accompanied by a friend I paid an admission fee of $1.00 & was ushered by a waiter to a table at north west corner of dance floor.

Here I ordered & was served with a round of whiskey hi-balls by <sup>colored</sup> waiter #11 (different man than previously mentioned in report of 5-6-22) for which I paid 75¢ per drink.

Here I was joined by two mulatto, unescorted, one who gave her name as Lillian. This woman solicited me to indulge in prostitution for a price of $3.00. In addition to these women I saw 12 other unescorted women who intermingled with men & were joined by them. I saw what appeared to be whiskey hi-balls served at various tables, both men & women being intoxicated. I also saw indecent dancing by both the entertainers & the patrons.

At about 12<sup>30</sup> a.m. I entered in to conversation with waiter #11 in reference to buying a half pint of liquor. He then brought a colored manager to me who informed me that I could only purchase a pint as he did not have any half-pints. The colored man then left me & returned in a few minutes with a pint bottle of Waterfall & Krazie whiskey, bottled in bond for which I paid him $12<sup>00</sup>.

 Waiter #11 opened this bottle and set it on my table. Tasting of its contents I found it to be whiskey. Remaining contents of said bottle is in evidence. At about 12<sup>45</sup> p.m. Mr. De Jonge accompanied by officers entered. These men searched the patrons.

interesting complaint

I was introduced to the apartment hall by a large black woman of about thirty-seven years of age, who told me that she was Miss Boyd all the time, & that she was in fact in that she had been living here for about a year.

Living with this woman for about half an hour I was able to obtain a few information that would lead me to believe that this was a house of ill-fame. This woman told me that she had many men & women friends who visited her at this place. She said that recently she had entertained a group of theatrical people.

While here I saw three young women who appeared to be living here.

A woman, known to me as Mrs Stanley, admitted us & showed us to parlors on first floor.

Here she solicited me to indulge in prostitution with her & also solicited my companions to indulge in same with a woman inmate for a price of $3.00 for a room & $5.00 for the woman.

Mrs. Stanley in the presence of Mr. Simmons & myself, exposed her bare body from the waist down & acted indecent otherwise.

While here I ordered & was served by her with a round of straight whiskey for which I paid her 75¢ per drink.

We entered and were ushered to a table at north-east corner of room. Then I ordered & was served by a waiter with a round of straight whiskey for which I paid 75¢ per glass. At several other tables I saw what appeared to be whiskey straight & he calls served and also saw several men & women intoxicated.

Two women at the table next to us flirted with us & Simmons danced with one of them. This woman gave her name as Fern & called the other Anna. Both of these women in each other's presence solicited us to go to their apartment for an immoral purpose.

At another table sat a young girl & two men. This girl flirted with me & latter joined me. She solicited me to indulge in prostitution with her, telling me that she ~~was~~ would take me to a near by hotel. She gave her name as Marie.

While here I saw no unescorted women

Over

There was intermingling between men & women patrons. I also saw vulgar dancing by the patrons.

I was admitted & introduced to a lady by a colored maid who I learned later was called Goldie.

Here I was joined by a mulatto woman who gave her name as M.A. Joy and who said she was the keeper. This woman answered Joy's description of Edith Mcfield.

Here she solicited me to indulge in prostitution with any of six inmates that she said were here, for a price of $2<sup>00</sup> for room & $3<sup>00</sup> for the girl.

A young white man then joined us. I ordered & was served by Goldie with a round of whiskey & talks for which I paid 25¢ per drink.

While here I saw a man whom I heard talking to the keeper regarding the inmates. Later I saw him at 394 Grand Blvd. This man is apparently a roper.
