 Six patrons

same operating as a disorderly saloon.
 Accompanied by my wife we entered back room
 of saloon & were ushered to a table on west side of room
 by a man, apparently the manager.

Here I ordered & was served by this man with two rounds of whiskey, hi-balls ~~after~~ which I paid him 75¢ per glass plus 50¢ tip.

Entertainment was furnished by a four piece orchestra & two young women, who danced & sang. One of these women put on an exhibition "Shimmy" dance.

While here I saw what appeared to be whiskey hi-balls served at three other tables. Two men at one of these tables were intoxicated.

A mulatto woman, who we were informed by one of the inmates was Edith Wakefield, the keeper, admitted us & showed us to a front parlor.

Here we were joined by five white girl inmates, two who gave their names as Kitty & Ellen.

Kitty asked Mr. X to buy drinks, which he did. Three of the girls then left the room. The keeper then served four whiskey-bis balls for which I saw Mr. X pay her 75¢ per drink plus 50¢ tip.

 A man - apparently a pimp.

one operating as a house of ill-fame.

A blond woman who said she was the keeper admitted us & ushered us to a front parlor. Here she solicited us to indulge in prostitution with an inmate for a price of $2.00.

She said she had only one girl at the time but if we wanted to come back later there would be more girls to select from.

As we were leaving I saw a man in the hall-way who was apparently a pimp for this place.
