3734 Cottage Grove (old inn hotel) to the above place.

I saw this man register on a loose leaf and pay the Clerk $2.00 at that time a soldier in uniform was also given a room with a young girl.

The clerk told me I could bring up a girl from the street, he would charge me $2.00 for the room - no baggage was necessary.

Attached find loose leaf used as register with name of the lame man on last entry.

Note - all who registered 11/10/17 are and wife. S.R.

At about 4 P. M. I saw 2 Sailors in uniform enter the above place. I followed them in.

They stood at the North end of the bar and said something to the tall, heavy, dark haired Bartender, (weighing about 200 lbs.)

The Bartender then told 2 civilians that were standing at the bar to stand near the sailors, which was done.

One of these Sailors gave a dollar bill to one of these civilians.

The Bartender served 2 glasses of ginger ale to the sailors, gave 2 empty glasses to one of the civilians, who filled them with whiskey from a decanter.

The sailors drank their ginger ale.

The civilian handed one of the filled whiskey glasses, behind him to one of the sailors, who poured its contents into his own empty glass and then drank it.

This act was repeated so that the 2nd sailor could get a drink of whiskey.

The Civilian gave ~~a dollar bill~~ the Bartender $100 (a callan bill); Bartender rang up 45¢, gave the change to the Civilian, who in turn handed it to the sailors.

The Sailors left the place, returned again in about 5 minutes and received from this same Civilian a bottle filled with liquid, that was evidently whiskey -

 2 sailors in uniform into the alley north of Harrison St. Between State St and Plymouth Ct.

 bottle, that looked like ^{it contained} whiskey.

This same lame man I have observed and hand them bottles with liquid in them.

I followed the lame man and the 2 sailors to State and VanBuren St and over heard the lame man tell the sailors that ~~"He"~~ he was around these corners all the time, and could get them anything to drink at any time; that he had several Civilian suits of clothes at his home that he would rent out to them.

We were admitted by a girl who told us her name was Josephine, to the front room facing street on 1st floor.

Josephine left the room, telling me she would call another girl; I heard her call "Grandma". She then returned to the room, telling us Grandma, the landlady, went for a girl next door.

In a few moments a girl entered, who was introduced to us as Olive. Josephine told Olive to take me to an other room which she did.

I met an old lady of about 60 yrs of age. She told me her name was Grandma told Oliver to take me to a bedroom just off of the sitting room, which she did.

After entering the bedroom Oliver accused me of being a detective, after assuring her that I was not, she searched me for a gun and star,

She told me that Grandma told her to be careful of both V & me as we were strangers -

Oliver then asked me to go to bed, but not naming a price. I then asked Josephine what is Oliver's price. Josephine told me that it was £3.00 and 1.00 for the room for Grandma.

I then told him that I had ^{had} a front room on the other side of the house (1803) before and that I did not want that room again. The old man, Geo. U and myself walked over to this side ⁽¹⁸⁰³⁾ and I showed him the room I had ^{had} and he pointed to another room (room 36) also on this side but did not say that he would give us room #36.

We three then walked back to the 1807 side of the hotel and while standing immediately in front of the office door (on this side) I asked the old gent what he would charge us for a room and he replied, "1.00 each".
We left by the 1807 side.

Special Report of Inv. V - on 3841-45 Cottage Grove Ave.
 Canary Cottage

Thursday Jan. 24th 1918

I entered this place in company with Inv X- at about 9 P.M. and we were ushered to a table in the extreme south room by a man acting as manager whom we later heard called "Mr. Edd."

We were solicited to buy drinks by a colored waiter #4 and were served with one bottle of Edelweiss Beer for which I payed 20¢ plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter in addition to a so called 10¢ government war tax on the first round of drinks, which the waiter insisted that every one must pay on the first purchase of liquor.

At a table about 10 feet east of us sat a man whom we later heard called "Weiss." I asked waiter #4 where Charlie Sheppard was and he said Charlie was managing the "New Fountain Inn" at 63rd St and 14th St. I also asked him who was the present manager and he replied "Mr. Edd". I then asked him who the man was, who was sitting at the table 10 feet from ours and he replied "the boss". I then asked who was the boss and he said "that is Louie Weiss" and pointed to the man sitting about 10 feet from our table.

From the description given me by Inv. R., this man was Louie Weiss.

Soon a woman about 28 years old, 5 ft. 6 inches tall, 130 lbs., with attractive big blue eyes, her eye-brows penciled black, the lines extending back farther than the natural eye-brow, wearing a grey dress and big-broad hat with a Jewish appearance ^{came in}. She is of attractive appearance, with pretty white skin and between a blonde and brunette. She sat with Louis Weiss at a table for a short time and walked about the place up to the time we left.

I saw her in conversation with Louis Weiss in the service bar.

Canary Cottage. Special Report.

I heard Mr. Edd address this woman as "Mrs. Weiss". I also asked waiter #4 who that chicken was and he replied "that is the boss's wife and when I asked who that was he said it was Louie Weiss' wife."

After being served with one more bottle of Edelweiss Beer for which Inv. X- paid $20 + plus a 10¢ tip. I called Louie Weiss to our table on a pretense of complaining on paying a 10¢ war tax. Louie told us that all the cafes are charging the same for war tax because they have to pay a war tax. He said he paid his war tax Wednesday (Jan. 23rd 1918), evidently speaking as tho he owned this place. I tried several ways to get him to say who he was but he wouldn't. During this conversation with him I referred to the new orchestra, new manager etc. and he replied -

Yes, I made several changes, again referring to possession,

Louie Weiss then stepped back from our table about 5 feet and I started to light my pipe. I noticed waiter # 4 immediately speak to Louie about my pipe and the waiter then came to us and told me that I was not allowed to smoke my pipe in here. I asked "who said so" and he pointed to Louie again and said "the boss said so." I then asked who he was and the waiter replied "Louie Weiss." I then asked the waiter if he owned the place to which the waiter replied "Yes, that's Louie Weiss."

Also, while back in the laboratory the colored attendant said that "Louie Weiss runs and owns this place and he pointed Louie Weiss out to me who was the same man referred to above. I was also told by this colored attendant and waiter # 4 that the manager's name was "Mr. Edd" referring to a different man than Mr. Weiss. We left at about 10¹⁰ P.M.

Special Report of Inv. V - on 3039 W. Madison St. - 2nd floor.
 Friday Jan. 25th 1918

In company with U.S. Deputy Marshall
 Morris Klein, U.S. Marshall Quiss, Deputy Collector Hawkins, Deputy Collector Mulholland and police officer Davies I left the Federal Building and arrived at 3039
 W. Madison St. 2nd floor at about 8 P.M.
 After entering we found only 2 women one of whom was about 74 years of age while the other woman was about 35 years old. After searching the premises thoroughly we found no liquor except 2 partially filled glasses of beer on the pantry shelf and 6 empty whiskey bottles in a cupboard drawer. These we did not confiscate.

The elder woman of the two said that May Hunt had gone to a show and would be back probably in an hour, however the younger woman said that May Hunt had gone to the County Hospital to visit her sick mother (Mrs. Foster). Deputy Collectors Hawkins and Mulkin left for their homes and Morris Klein accompanied me to the County Hospital in search of May Hunt while Officer Hawes and U.S. Marshall Criss remained in the flat.

At the hospital, the door man informed us that there had been no visitors here for this particular patient.

We then returned to 3039 W. Madison St. and told the two women it was Mother Foster we wanted instead of May Hunt and with Hawes, Klein and Criss I covered the house in wait for May Hunt up to 9¹⁵ P.M. but did not find her.

We then planned a trap for May Hunt for the following day and returned to the Federal Bldg.

Inw. R-U-X; Marshall Oriss and Marshall Joe Kubik planned as follows;
 Inw. U and X to cover 3039 W. Madison St.
 Inw. R and Marshall Oriss to search the home of May Hunt at 1846 Fulton St. while I was to go to the County Hospital with Joe Kubik, have May Hunt called to the Hospital to see her mother on a pretense of her mother being seriously ill.
 With Joe Kubik ~~we~~ arrived at the hospital at about 3⁵⁰ P.M. and after we had arranged to have the Marshall's office notified when Mother Foster was able to leave through the courtesy of Mr. Healy, assistant superintendent of the institution.

We then had the head nurse of ward #30 (ward in which Mrs. Foster is) call 3039 W. Madison St. and deliver the message as above. The nurse then reported to us that a man's voice answered the telephone who said May Hunt was not in but he would find her and have her come right over to the hospital. We waited until about 6 P.M. when we learned that Inw. R and Marshall Ours, Inw. U & X had entered the flat at 3039 W. Madison St. and it was the conclusion of Marshall Kubik that May Hunt would not fall in the trap we had planned for her because of that. We left for the flat and arrived there at about 11¹² P.M. where we joined the rest of the boys and left for our homes.

We were solicited to buy all drinks by colored waiter #8 except the first 2 beers, which was served by colored waiter #3 - and the round of drinks Inv. U paid for which were served at the other table of our party, and the two bottles we carried out.

All drinks were served and payed for in rotation as shown above. Of the four glasses of beer I was served I confiscated and transferred to a bottle a portion of each ~~glass~~ until my bottle was full, the balance I poured on the floor.

I saw Inv. U confiscate a portion of the 3 hi-balls served him and transfer same to a bottle in his left, vest top pocket.

A moment before being served our first drinks Inv. U called a man over to our table who was known to me as Mr. Edd but later said his correct name was Harry De Witt. We heard Harry call a man known as Louie Weiss, Louie.

Page 4

After some conversation with Harry,
he said that he was the manager and would see that we were treated right.

We were solicited to buy drinks by waiter #3 and were served with 2 glasses of beer which we saw him pour from 2 dark brown bottles without labels on them. He said that this was Bevo but we would like it alright. The drinks were served to us in two tall glasses.
Later waiter #3 admitted to me that this liquor was real beer and Harry came over to us and said, "real stuff isn't it"?

During our stay I saw drinks served at various tables in small wine glasses which appeared to be wine and also drinks in larger glasses that appeared to be gingerale & hi-balls.

During the dances we saw couples, kissing, rubbing their bodies and shaking themselves in an unclean manner.

(Canary Cottage - Inv. V)

Part of these acts took place while Louie Weiss sat at a table near the orchestra and I saw him laugh when a young couple rubbed their bodies. He also laughed when the female entertainer (largest of the two female entertainers) shook her body and breast.

Waiter #3 was standing next to our table when Mr Weston came to our table and told Inv. V - that Kitty De Foe wanted to dance with him. When Inv. V - told waiter #3 it was against the law he replied, "I know it, go right ahead and I will speak to Louie and fix it up and no one will say anything." Inv. V then danced with Kitty De Foe.

Louie Weiss talked and sat with the patrons, received people at the door etc. and was very active in general.

On one occasion when Harry De Witt came to our table he asked us how we liked the service and drinks and Inv. V - said that the hi-balls contained enough booze to kill a horse and Harry replied "that's all we sell". He also said that any time we wanted to be fixed up to call him over. He also inquired of us as to who the other party was and if they were alright etc (referring to Kitty De Foe's table) and Geo. U. told him they were friends of ours and were alright and give them what they wanted.

We left at 11⁴⁵ P.m. and stopped at a drug store at 3900 Cottage Grove Ave. where Geo. U. purchased sealing wax and candles. We then proceeded to the Ill. Central station at 39th St where we joined the other party with the exception of Miss Coler and sealed our bottles.

Geo. U. and myself then took our girls to 6022 Kenwood Ave. arriving there at about 1¹⁰ a.m. We then proceeded to 60 W. Madison St. where we had a short lunch arriving there at about 1⁴⁰ a.m.

(Canary Cottage - Inv. V)

We then proceeded to the office arriving there at about 2⁰⁵ a.m. where we locked our 4 bottles in our drawers and sealed the drawers and found same as we left them on my arrival Monday at 1³⁰ P.m. (Jan 28-1918).

Note We turned our bottles over to Inv. R. I also saw two prostitutes sitting with a man whom I know to be inmates of a cell flat at 3100 Ellis Ave. Their names are Maude and Adell.

 Tuesday Jan. 29th 1918.

In company with Mr X- I entered this saloon at about 1³⁵ P.M. and sat at the lunch counter.

We entered into conversation with the cook here whom I know as "Barney". I saw an unsorted woman sitting in the rear room and I asked Barney if he could fix us up, to which he replied, "Sure, come back later or sometime this evening. She has a date now and is waiting for a guy but you fellows come back later and I will fix you up with her"

Expense: 15¢.

During our stay here we were solicited to

The first drinks were served at about 9³⁰ P.M., while the last round was served at about 12³⁰ A.M. (Monday Feb. 4th 1918), all drinks being served by colored waiter #1.

After ordering our lunch the waiter asked us if we didn't want beer to drink with it. The beer was brought to the table in dark brown bottles where the waiter poured same into tall glasses (same as on our visit here of Sunday Jan. 27th 1918)

The next round of drinks being whiskey (Hi-balls (as ordered) tasted strongly of whiskey. These also were served in the same manner as on Jan. 27th, being carried to our tables in small bottles corked with a mettles cap.

On the fourth round when Miss Coles ordered a creme de menthe the waiter said that he could only served the white kind and it was served. I tasted this drink and it tasted the same as any ordinary creme de menthe.

I started several of the hi-balls served to others at our table and they all tasted strongly of whiskey as well as those served to myself.

~~On one occasion we were~~ joined by Harry De Witt (manager) and on another occasion we were joined by Louie Weiss. In both instances each were served with gingerale hi-ball and both drinking a portion of the hi-ball and I tasted each drink and they also contained whiskey. When each drink was ordered I told the waiter to make good ones for Louie Weiss and Harry De Witt.

We also saw a soldier (2nd Lieutenant) sitting at one table with a party of three persons, a soldier (private) sitting at another with a party of three persons and a sailor at another table with a girl.

The 2nd Lieutenant was served with 5 glasses of liquor that appeared to be gingerale hi-balls. On one occasion when this soldier went to the lavatory I followed him back and entered into a conversation with him trying to get his name Etc.

However he gave me no satisfaction and said I could call him "Jack". He would not say he was getting intapicants at his table.

We also saw the private soldier served with 3 glasses of liquor which appeared to be hi-balls. In the same manner as above I tried to learn what he was being served with Etc. but got no satisfaction.

The 2nd Lieutenant was here when we arrived and left with his party at about 12¹⁰ a.m. and the private soldier arrived here with his party about 10¹⁵ P.M. and left at about 12³⁰ a.m.

The sailor was served with a water colored liquid (probably creme de menthe) He remained about 1 hour.

Inw U-also pointed out to me a girl whom he said was a former inmate of apt. 18-140-46 E-45th St. She was sitting at a table about 10 feet from ours and I noticed Harry De Wit spent a good deal of time at her table, talking, laughing etc.
 Two young men entered and were ushered to a table next to ours by Louie Weiss and the three immediately entered into a whispering conversation. Inw U told me he recognized the two men as being from Van Praags gambling house on South Wabash Ave. The three, were served with 2 rounds of drinks that appeared to be gingerale hi-balls.

Later, when we purchased a hi-ball for Louie Weiss which he drank at our table, Inw-U introduce him to each of us as Louie Weiss, the boss. I told Louie that I had a girl entertainer who in her entertaining was very attractive and would draw trade but I insisted that she must not get in bad, to which Louie replied "Oh that's alright, we don't have to ~~to~~ the mark down here" and told me to bring the girl down and he would try her out. He later told me a good girl would be worth $30⁰⁰ or $35⁰⁰ per week if she can make herself attractive.
 (over)

One young couple dancing rubbed their bodies together while Louie Weiss sat at the table next to ours and we saw him laugh at them and appeared to be amused.

Louie Weiss was even more astute on this visit than on Jan. 27 - 1918. We saw him sit and mingle with patrons, walking about lively in and out of the service bar and I also heard him tell the piano player to play something lively and warm up.

We also saw the young man entertainer dance with patrons several times. This also took place in the presence of Louie Weiss.

We also saw patrons of different tables dancing with one another and the dancing was just as suggestive as on our visit of Jan. 27-1918.

On our way out, after Mr. U, Miss Coles and Mrs. De Foe had shaken hands with Laurie Weiss, I told Laurie I had forgotten his name and asked what it was and he replied "Weiss". I then shook hands with Mr. Weiss and bade him good night.

Caroline said she would call two girls for us and went to the telephone and called Calumet 791 or Oakland 791 and asked for a "Mrs. Hagan". When she returned she said that the girls were on their way over also that Edith would be here soon.

The door bell rang 3 times and a young woman came in whom Caroline introduced to us as "Billie".

Soon the bell rang again 3 times and a woman (about 35 years old, 5 ft 8 in., 165 lbs., with light brown hair combed straight back and blue eyes) came in whom Caroline introduced to us as "Edith".

Later the third woman arrived and was introduced to us as "Ruth".

Billie solicited us to buy another drink and we were served with 4 bottles of Edelweiss Beer and 2 glasses of whiskey for which she asked the sum of $6⁰⁰.

 After some conversation Caroline accepted $3⁰⁰ for the drinks from Inw. U-.

Edith acknowledged her name was Edith

In company with Inv. X- I first visited this place at about 9²⁵ P.M. Wednesday Feb. 13th 1918. A boy about 9 years old could give us no interesting information, who answered the door.

On Thurs. Feb. 21st 1918 I called and talked with a woman on the telephone who said she was Mable Finnegan using the name Sigh Ferry as an "outlet" and when I asked for an appointment with Mable, she became very indignant, said she did not know Sigh Ferry or any other man who works for the Blue Cab Co. She hung up the receiver.

I again visited this place at about 8¹⁰ P.M. on Friday Feb. 22nd 1918. A man answering door said Mable was working. I found no signs of immorality on either visit.
