Law. U. argued with the clerk and finally the girls joined in.

Upon our entrance we looked farther into but did not see it on the office desk.

The clerk left the room and I gave Sadie 50¢ for her time etc. and Law. U. gave Marie 50¢ and we left, the girls renewed the argument with the clerk as Law. U. and myself were leaving and we left the girls here.

Expenses 50¢

Rose left soon saying that she had a date with a "trick" who buys her clothes and gives her plenty of money.

Betty solicited us to prostitution for the sum of $5^{\underline{00}}$ plus $1^{\underline{00}}$ for the room saying she would split the room rent (each of us to pay $1^{\underline{00}}$ in addition to the $5^{\underline{00}}$). She said she would take one of us for $5^{\underline{00}}$ plus $2^{\underline{00}}$ for the room. Betty also solicited us to prostitution (french style) for the same amount and said that old men usually prefer that style.

At the basement flat a young girl answered my knock on the door and speaking thru the door said that she was home alone and would not open the door. She also said that "Kane" live here.

Not getting satisfaction here I went to the middle flat (1st fl. over street) and this woman said that "there were no girls living downstairs, there are several young ladies" and appeared to be a little hurt because of the questions I asked her. She also said that the people downstairs were respectable and do not make noise etc.

{ In company with Inv. U- we entered the saloon at 6225 So. Halsted St. and asked the bartender if he could find for us or direct us to some nice girls. He said he did not know of any.

{ We visited the Piedmont Hotel at 6234-38 So. Halsted St. and met a negro clerk ^(woman) there. When I asked if we could bring up 2 structural workers later on in the evening she replied "Nothing doing".

{ We visited the saloon at 6127 So. Halsted and Inv. U- asked the bartender if he could fix us up with some girls and he told us to go out on the street and get them.

{ We next visited the National Hotel at 6128-30 So. Halsted St. and on the 2nd floor we met a negro-clerk (woman). Inv. U asked if we could bring up 2 structural workers and very indignantly she said "No sir, nothing doing".

{ Inv. U visited the Empress Hotel next (I waited outside).

girls who appeared to be about 18 years old spoke to me and we talked with them. They said their names were Frieda and Anna. During our conversation with these girls, after we had impressed on them that we were out stepping and for a good time they gave us the following names and telephone numbers ^{of other girls} Lillian Barker Laundale 2-166 and Hazel - Monticello 8. Frieda said these girls were about who we wanted and will go stepping the limit with us. Frieda and Anna however said they were not that kind so we left them.

(We next visited the saloon at 832 W.-63rd and asked the bartender here if he could fix us up with some girls. He said, "no girls around here but you can get all you want out on the street".

We next visited the saloon at 6300 So. Halsted St. and asked the bartender and

{ The saloons at 6301 So. Halsted St. were were told that there were no girls around at all.

We next visited the Le Roy Hotel at 6725 So. Halsted St. (entrance on Englewood Ave) and on the 1st floor we met a man (clerk) and asked if we could take in 2 streetwalkers and he said "not in this hotel, you can't". We left the Le Roy Hotel at about 10¹⁰ P.M. and discontinued for the day.

Hof J.F.

Case in behalf of 5 yr. old boy - Room 910 - City Bldg.

When this case was called the attorney for the defence said that the adopted grandmother of the child (who now has custody of the child) had two sons, both of whom have criminal records and their pictures in the rogues gallery and they are not fit to have permanent charge of the boy.

The defence also admitted that the woman known as Mrs. Smith, who was the keeper of the house at 16 N. Lincoln was not fit to have custody of the child as well but mentioned that the boy be adopted out to a neutral party.

Judge Arnold then continued the case to April 26th 1918 to give time to investigate the adopted grandmother and said he would not need Mr. Thrasher's men to testify on that date.

Neither Gov. X or myself were called on to testify.

I asked her, for how much and she replied $3.00 for 5 minutes.

I made an excuse, that I wanted to stay all night and Bobby said that she would lose money by that because they have trucks coming up at all hours and said if she stayed all night with one man she would lose $2.50 because she makes $2.50 a night.

I saw Geo. R- give Teddy 50¢
Bobby wrote her telephone number and address on a card for me (Attached) and another young man and they seated themselves at a table about 20 feet west from ours, later they came back to our table. Geo. X- and myself had been served one bottle of Edelweiss Beer by waiter #19 and after Geo. R, V.O. Whitaker had their friend sit at our table the waiter refused to serve any member of our table any alcoholic liquor because of the presence of the sailor in uniform at the table. On account of four of us at one table Geo. X and myself sat at another table in the southeast corner of the room where we were served one more bottle of Edelweiss Beer by waiter #19.

Soon a man (about 45 yrs. old, 5 ft 11, 175 lbs dark complexioned, wearing glasses, a heavy black mustache and bald in front) whom Geo. U- said was Ed. Weiss. I noticed this man come back toward our tables several times and stare at each of us.

~~Soon~~ I saw a young man whom was introduced to me as Charlie Kefford,

Charlie spoke to some people at a table close by and when he looked up he noticed Ino U with V.O. Whitaker (a sailor). Charlie said "Hello" to Ino U and then looked at me and said "Hello" to me.

After being recognized by Charlie Gifford I suggested that Ino U, X, V.O. Whitaker and myself leave before Charlie pointed us out to other members of the Fountain Inn.
(Ino R had left just previously to this incident with a sailor for the Englewood

The four of us left the place making our exit thru the bar room and when we got out on the sidewalk we saw Charlie Gifford poke his head say something to the door man. The door man said something to police officer 701 who was standing close by #701 then walked to 63rd St. (I followed him) and I saw him say something to police officer 2069. #701 then walked back to the door man of the Fountain Inn and whispered to him whereupon the door man entered the Fountain Inn, 701 walked around to the corner of the building as tho to hide. When the door man re-appeared the whispered something to 701 and 701 in turn walked over underneath the "L" where 2069 was standing (apparently waiting). Both police officers watched us and tried to get close to us, however we all managed to keep a safe distance from them so they could not get a good look at either of us.

Sat. April 13th 1918.

While we were in the Fountain Inn I noticed Ed Weiss was very active, ushering people to tables and directing waiters etc. I also saw police officer #1701 enter twice and each time talk to Ed Weiss.

I also saw 2 sailors sitting at tables and 2 soldiers in uniform dancing. I could not see what the sailors were drinking nor where the soldiers were sitting. We left the Fountain Inn at about 11⁴⁰ P.M.

Inv. U, X and Y.O. Whitaker walked up and down Halsted St. and later met Inv. R and R.D. McFarrah (a sailor) at 63rd & Halsted St. where we stood until about 1 A.M. (Sunday April 14th 1918). We all walked north in Halsted St. about 1/2 mile and left the vicinity.

was to be operating as a house of ill-fame and a disorderly saloon.

We entered the bar room on the 1st floor and were served a glass of beer each which I Mr. R- paid for.

Standing at the end of the bar was a young man of Jewish appearance, 5 ft 6, 130 lbs., and dark complexioned who was acting as a "barker". The barker repeatedly hollered out loud enough so that it could be heard out in the street, "Come on boys, alright boys, see the girls upstairs. Stavis over here." (Pointing to stairs which lead to the 2nd floor.)

The four of us proceeded upstairs and at the door on the 2nd floor girls garbed in kimono's and then parted letters through which their bare limbs were visible and in some instances exposed their privates.

This place was crowded with men. As we entered a girl grabbed each of us by the arm and led us to a table in the front part of the 2nd floor. Each of the four girls asked us to buy drinks and I noticed a waiter standing by. We were served with 8 glasses of beer for which Gov. R paid $1.00 plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter.

When the beer was served the waiter distributed a metal check to each of the girls sitting at our table.

The girl who sat with me said her name was "Della". I asked Della what the checks were for and she said that they represented her commission on the sale of the beer. When Della placed the check in her stocking she showed me a bunch of checks (about 50) which she said she had made so far to night.

Della said, each check represents 10¢ and I get 35¢ on the dollar.

I asked her if she made much money in a night and she replied "Well, I get $1⁰⁰ commission on every 'jazz', and give the landlady $1⁰⁰ on a jazz."

The girl sitting at my right put her leg over on my lap and Della saw it and said to her "Say, take your leg away, take care of your own man". It looked like there was going to be trouble over that between the girls for a while.

I heard the girls sitting with the other investigators solicit them to prostitution and heard the sum of $2⁰⁰ mentioned by 2 of the girls.

As we were about to leave Della said to me, "aren't you going to jazz me." and I asked what she charge and she said $2⁰⁰.

I asked Della how many girls there were here and she said "15" (I counted 15 girls). I also saw about 25 men sitting around.

As we entered I noticed a negro maid who was apparently in charge of the money taken in on tricks. I saw her give 2 girls checks when the girls gave her money in bills.

We left at about 12 midnight and proceeded out through the bar room on the 1st fl.

I noticed the "barker" was still doing his duty.

This place was crowded and it was about 5 minutes before the waiters found a table for us. We were then ushered to a table in the rear of the room next to the orchestra. There was approximately 225 people sitting at tables and about 20 people standing near the door waiting for a table.

The orchestra here is of the original jazz type and 3 gals entertainers were garbed in low necked dresses.

When the orchestra played for a dance the small dancing space could not accommodate the people who tried to dance and as a result, the couples in general just stood practically still rubbing their bodies together. I also saw men grab other women with their hands and feel up or down their legs. The dancers (over) could not commit more illicit acts with one another and at the same time stand up.

"Shimmy" dancing was popular.

I saw many men and women intoxicated and some of them trying to dance were hardly able to stand.

I saw several boys and girls sitting at different tables who appeared to be about 18 years old, some of whom were intoxicated.

It was nothing unusual to see men and women caress and embrace each other in here.

The 3 women entertainers mingled with the patrons while they were not singing and solicited them to buy drinks. Two of these women came to a table next to ours and succeeded in having the men here buy them drinks.

I also saw 4 sailors in uniform here, 2 of whom were dancing.

We returned at about 8¹⁰ P.M. and I saw R-

I saw R remained in the flat 10 minutes (until 8²⁰ P.M.) when I was admitted into Upon my entrance into the flat Dotty immediately asked me if I wanted to go to bed.

I asked her what she charged and she replied "$3.00".

After making my excuse Dotty said "Go on, get out of here, you're a two pricks".

I then left the premises.

The dancing here was very suggestive and we saw several men intoxicated some of whom appeared to be about 18 years old.

We were served 4 glasses of Lager beer which the waiter said was Edelweiss beer and Mr Beckwith was served with a Leo-ger-fizz while Inv. U ordered and was served a gingerale hi-ball. I tasted the hi-ball and tasted very strongly of whiskey. Each glass of beer was accompanied by a small empty brown bottle labeled, "Edelweiss, a non intoxicating cereal beverage". The inside of these bottles were dry. Now and then a waiter would take one of these bottles and put it on another table close by. (Apparently short of bottles).

We saw amber colored liquor (apparently hi-balls and beer) served at other tables near us.

At one table I saw a girl about 7 years old sitting with 2 men and 2 women. She was drinking what appeared to be beer.

Shimmy dancing was popular and in many instances the couples just stood still and rubbed their bodies together in a way as to keep time with the music.

Several of the women, I noticed were intoxicated.

The beer we had was Lager beer.

There were three girls and three men entertainers, making six in all.

The entertainers part thru the patrons with a hat and I put 10¢ in the hat.

We also saw the entertainers dancing and drinking with patrons.

Chicago May 15th 1918.

Mr. Samuel P. Thrasher.

Supt. - Committee of Fifteen

My Dear Mr. Thrasher:

I hereby tender my resignation as an investigator for the Committee of Fifteen and regret to state that the conduct of our chief investigator, Mr. William Goldhush is so unbearable that I cannot stand it longer.

On May 15th 1918 Mr. Goldhush held a girl of immoral character on his lap whom we picked up on the road north of Burnham and continued to hug and kiss this girl from the time we picked her up until our arrival at 56 W. Madison St. Chicago.

This happened in the presence of Mr. Pollard and Lieut. Beckwith, both government officials and our guests and each made remarks upon our arrival in Chicago to impress me that they were disgusted with Mr. Goldhush. It was necessary for me to apologize to these two government officials in behalf of the Committee of Fifteen.

Mr. Goldhirst is also in the habit of removing his coat in a pool room while playing pool exposing a revolver hanging from his belt, which drew considerable attention from other pool players. The first time I noticed this was about four weeks ago at 14 N. Black St.

Mr. Goldhirst also told me that two brother-in-laws on the job were dangerous. When I asked him, "why," he replied that if Geo. X or myself done anything crooked, one would shield the other.

I could mention numerous other reasons why I am resigning, all of which pertain to Mr. Goldhirst's ignorance, ill-manners, domineering and sarcastic ways and talk and I can bear it no longer.

I trust that the Committee will help me in securing another position which I will greatly appreciate because of resigning without a position in sight - Yours Respectfully Harry W. Nichols.

A woman answered the door on the first floor who Inv. X- introduced to me as Mamie Thompson. This is the same woman I obtained evidence against on Thursday April 18-1918.
at 5641-B Prairie Ave.

Mamie said she had company now and said we should have called her up before coming, however she invited us to call on her Wednesday May 22-1918.
I asked Mamie what her price was and she replied "$3.00".

Mamie appeared in a silk kimono.
The name J. O'Brien appeared on the door bell.

A woman answered the door known as "May" who is the same woman whom I obtained evidence against on April 27th and 29th of April 1918.

May told me to come in and we stepped in just inside of the door of the front room which is May's living room.

May said to us when we stepped in, "Boys isn't this a fine day to jazz?"

Ins. U then asked May what she charged and she replied "1.00"

Arriving at the door of this apartment
we found three young colored men standing here who said they were waiting to get in.
I asked them if Hattie was here and they replied "yes".

Soon a young colored woman about 28 years old came to the door and admitted the 3 young men. When I inquired for "Hattie" this young woman said, "I am sorry but I only let colored men in. My husband and I are afraid of white men and I can't let you in."

Hattie then came to the door and after speaking to her, Hattie said she would go out with us some place if we wanted "a jazz".

Sw. I asked her what she charged for a jazz and Hattie replied "$2.00".

Hattie also said that the "keeper" of this flat was afraid of Junkhouse men and that was the reason she would not let a white man in.

After being seated at a table in the south west room I was solicited to buy and served, a bottle of Lager beer by a colored waiter for which I paid $5.4 plus a 10¢ tip.

The beer was brought in and poured into a big glass from a brown bottle which bore no label. The waiter carried the bottle back to the service bar with him.

There were about 75 people present, the majority of whom were drinking beer and other amber colored liquors which appeared to me to be ginger ale or pop.

Louie Weiss sat at a table about 15 feet from me. He looked at me but showed no indications of recognizing me as one of his enemies.

I saw entertainers and musicians. The orchestra is now located on the south side of the southwest room.

I also saw a man of Jewish

Investigation

After being seated at a table in the south-west room I ordered and was served a bottle of Lager Beer for which I paid 25¢ plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter.

The beer was brought in and poured from a dark brown bottle which bore no label, into a tall glass. The waiter carried the bottle away after emptying it.

There were about 75 people present, 2 musicians and two female entertainers. The majority of the patrons were drinking beer served in the same manner as was mine. Some were served ^{an} amber-colored liquor which appeared to me to be a gingerale hot balls.

I also saw a man of Jewish descent, 5 ft 5, 175 lbs, and dark complexioned, acting as manager.

I inquired of the young woman at the door who checks the coats and hate how long she worked. She told me that this place stays open as late as 3 and 4 a.m. I tall depends on the crowd they have. I asked if we could purchase drinks up to that hour on Saturday (Sunday a.m.) and she said "Yes". I did not see Louie Weiss this visit.

I entered again at 12⁵⁵ a.m. and found a seat in the southwest room about 15 feet from where Louie Weiss was seated at a table. Louie Weiss looked at me but showed no indications of recognizing me as one of his enemies.

I ordered and was served another bottle of Lager beer for which I paid 75¢ plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter.

This bottle of beer was served in the same manner as the above bottle. I saw Gro. X served with a bottle of liquor in the same manner.
