 Thursday December 13th 1917 6³⁰ to 6⁴⁰

Entering the above place I found a woman and the bartender (who is known as Tom Black) sitting at a small table in the bar room.

Tom got up and served me with a soft drink. I tried to talk to him about things in general, but he was not talkative so I left.

I waited outside in order to follow the woman. Just after Inv R + V entered which was about 7 PM the woman came out. She walked east and entered 8 East 22nd St. In less than a minute she came out, stood a few moments on the sidewalk, looked east & west, and then proceeded east to Cottage Grove and walked on the east side of Cottage Grove Ave walking south, where she disappeared at the mouth of the first alley south of 22nd St. S. S.

By an appointment made over the telephone by Mrs Burgdorf, I met Sam at the Hotel Laballe at 3³⁰ P M. (Inv. X Covered both of us)

I spent 20 minutes with Sam at the hotel bar, where we had a glass of beer each, and in that time told me, that, Smiley had hired him to go to Minneapolis to work on a job he had worked on before, and that ~~when~~ he got back that Smiley had guaranteed him steady work. That Smiley told him that the C. of F. had 2 new men one of which had a lantern jaw, & about 145 lbs, and the description given of the other man was correct, because he (Sam) had seen him. Also that Syd was going to be fired this coming Saturday.

That Smiley also told him came to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

We were admitted by a woman known to me as Matilda Durant, she is the same woman I met on my previous visit.

She solicited us to buy beer and she served us with 2 bottles of Edelweiss beer charging me $1.00.

I told her solicitor Mr X to

prostitution for the sum of $$5.00$ as we were leaving I asked her if she would sell us a couple of bottles of beer, as we were going around the corner to see a friend & did not care to go all the way down to the saloon. She said she would & wrapped 2 bottles of Edelweiss beer, charging me $$1.00$.

S.S.

Expenses at above named place $$2.40$

Note on my previous visit I promised to buy her a Desk Calendar and Memo File, which I bought for 40¢ & delivered when making the above call.

We entered the entrance of 1803. as we stood at the head of the stairs on the 2nd floor, we saw a man, about 55 years old 5ft 5 inch, with a hump on his back come out of a room at the top of the stairs of 1807.

We walked over to him, and asked him where Amiel was,

he said "in the basement."

We asked him if he was a "strauss" and he said, "I am father of Mrs"

Mr V. told him that we were alright because Amiel had rented him a room on the other side some time ago.
We all then walked to the 1803 section and the man pointed to a front bedroom + Mr. V said "that's the room I had but I don't want it because it is too cold"

We all then walked to the 1807 section.
We then told him that we had a couple of Street Walkers down stairs and asked him if we could get a room. The man said "yes", and named a price of $1.00

special Report of Investigator U
 on 944 Sheridan Road. 2nd floor.
 Friday January 25th 7⁵⁰ to 8¹⁰ PM 1918

In Company with U.S. Internal Revenue officer Lawrence Kilcourse, U.S. Marshal
 Mr Streeter, and Police officer Keough
 I left the Federal Bldg in an automobile, arriving at the above address at 7⁵⁰ PM.

Matilda Durant admitted to Mr Kilcourse that she sold liquor without a government licence. He then read a search warrant to her. I then lead the men to the pantry where they found 2 full cases (²⁴~~24~~ bottles each) of Edelweiss beer, and one empty case of Edelweiss beer bottles.

While officer Keough and myself watched Matilda Durant, Kilcourse and Streeter continued the search but did not find any other liquor.

I noticed on the kitchen sink
 2 empty whiskey flasks, and about 20 metal beer bottle top. On the kitchen table ~~table~~ I saw 1 cutting board (such as used in a Saloon to cut up lemon peel) + about 8 whiskey glasses, and 3 ~~whine~~ glasses.

Kilcours then marked in pencil the labels of several bottles of both the full cases of beer, also on the side of the cases.

Streeter then read a warrant to Matilda Durant, and took her away with him.

Keough and myself carried the two full cases of beer down to the automobile, and in company with Kilcours drove back to the Federal Bldg.

We placed the cases in a vault. after Keough and myself marked several bottles, and labelled the cases. (The vault is in room 531)

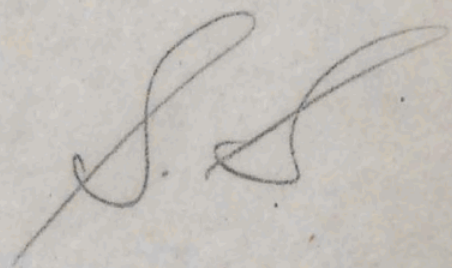

I got a receipt for the two cases from W. H. Sage, Deputy Collector. which is attached herewith.

Special Report of Investigator U
 Sunday, January 27th 1918, 9³⁰ to 11⁴⁵ PM on the Canary Cottage
 3841-5 Cottage Grove Ave
 In Company with

{ Miss Mc Namara sat with U. } , table
 Miss Smith " " V. }
 { Miss Coles sat with Mr. Weston } , table
 Miss Kitty De Foe " " " Damon }

Both tables in east end of south room and were about 15 feet apart.

At about 8⁴⁵ PM Inv. V and myself searched each other in the Lake Park Ave Elevated station for liquor. I found none on Inv. V. He said he found none on me. We arrived at 3846 Ellis Ave 4th floor north at 9⁰⁰ PM where we found the above named people

Miss Coles, Miss "Kitty" De Foe, Damon, & Weston left at 9¹⁰. The rest of us left at 9²⁵

Our Party arrived at the Canary Cottage at 9³⁰ PM, and found the other party seated.

We were ushered to our table by a man who said that his name was Harry De Witt, and that he was the manager.

Between the hours of 9³⁰ and 11⁴⁵ we ordered the following.

	Paid by V.		Paid by U.
	Charged	Tip	Charged	Tip
Lunch (all of us)	2.10	.25
2 Beers to (V & U)	.60	.15
2 Virginia Dars (the girls)	.60	.25
2 " " (the girls) (1 Beer V) (1 High Ball U)			1.00	.25
1 High ball U. - 1 Beer V	.50	.25
1 " " U. - 1 Beer V			.50	.25
1 Round for the other table			1.00	.25
2 Bottles which we took out	.50	.25
	4.30	1.15	2.50	.75
Total spent.	4.45		3.25

Just as we were being seated I noticed 2 uniformed policemen leave the service bar room and walk out. I could not get their numbers.

We then ordered the above specified drinks in the order + paying the amounts as shown.

Of the 4 Beers served to Inv. V. I saw him confiscate a portion of each one, transferring same into a bottle. I tasted his first beer + it tasted like real beer.

I confiscated portions of the three highballs served to me, transferring same into a bottle. From the taste of each I would say they contained whiskey.

We were solicited to buy all drinks served to us by colored waiter No 8., except the first 2 beers which were served by colored waiter No 3. and except the round of drinks which I paid for served at the other table of our party + except for the two bottles of gingerale highballs which we took out with us.

As we finished our lunch I called over a man who seemed to be in charge and whom I heard call a man by the name of "Louie". (Louie is about 40 years old, 5 ft 9 inch, 170 lbs, Blue eyes, bald, Jewish appearance.) I asked him if he was the manager and he said yes and that his name was Harry De Witt. After our talk he said that he would see that I would be treated right.

Waiter No 3 solicited us to buy drinks. We ordered 2 beers. No 3 said that they could only serve Bevo, but that we would it to be alright. We were served (Inw. V. and myself) from 2 brown bottles, without labels, same being poured into tall glasses.

It tasted like real beer. Harry De Witt then came over and said "real stuff isn't it". Waiter No 3 then came over and I heard him say to Inw. V. that that is real beer"

Miss Mc Namara + I danced three dances. The dance floor covers parts of the three rooms. As we danced I counted 40 people present. Most of the drinks on the tables appeared to be gingival Nightballs. I noticed 2 drinks which appeared to be "sloe gin fizzies" and 3 drinks served in small wine glasses which looked like port wine. I did not notice any beer.

Amongst the dancers & couples danced in a very suggestive way, one couple of whom would kiss each other when they arrived in the north room.

One of the girl entertainers as she sang each song went thru the motions of a "belly dancer".

Mr Weston came over to me and said his friend Miss Kitty De Foe wanted a dance with Mr. Walter No 3 heard him, and I said to Walter No 3 that that was against the law & that I had better not dance. He told me he knew it was but for me to go ahead that he would speak to Louie & fix it up. I then danced with Miss "Kitty" De Foe.

⑥

Louise Weiss was very active receiving people as they came in, going back and forth to the service bar room and setting at different tables.

Harry De Witt came over to me a number of times, asking if I liked the service and the drinks. He said if I didn't get what I wanted to let him know. I told him that the highballs which I was drinking had enough whiskey to kill a horse, & he said that was the only kind they sold, and that any time I wanted to get fixed up to come & see him.

He asked me if the party at the other table (pointing to Miss Kelly De Foe table) were alright & I said sure give them all the booze they wanted because they are friends of mine & he said alright whatever you say goes.

At about 11¹⁵ P.M. Miss Kelly De Foe party left.

(7)

At 11⁴⁵ PM. our party left, and went to the drug store at 3900 Cottage Grove Ave, where I bought sealing wax and a candle. We then went to the 39th St. St. Cent. station where we met our other party, and sealed our bottles.

Inv. V and myself then took our girls home to 6022 Glenwood arriving there at about 1¹⁰ AM.

We then went down town and had a bite to eat at 60 W Madison St.

We then went to the squash room arriving there at 2⁰⁵ AM, locked up our samples in the desk, and sealed the drawers, which we found unbroken when we arrived at 1⁴⁵ PM Jan 28.

My Expenses at above named place $ 3²⁵

note on other side.

S. S.

Note:

I saw 3 prostitutes present.
They were Adell and Maude whom I and V and myself secured evidence against at 3100 Ellis apt 46.

And a woman who solicited me to prostitution at 2334 Indiana Ave.

We were admitted into the flat by a woman whom we met in the outside hall, and who said her name was Meard.

She ushered us into a bedroom off the hall. The bed was unmade, and on the bureau was 5 empty bottles of table beer. While she sat & smoke a cigarette & talked she told us that she & Florence had been over to a saloon, and that Florence would be back soon.

In a few moments a woman came in who said her name was Florence Moor.

She told us that she didn't want people in her place unless they ^{were} brought up by somebody she knew. That she is pinched about once a month and wasn't looking for trouble. Also that she knew everybody over at "Des Plaines".

Just as we were getting ready to go after she said "this is a conversational parlor." the door bell rang. Two uniformed sailors entered one of whom she called Walter.

As we were leaving she told us that we could come back if we could show who we were.
