same to be operating as a house of ill-fame.
I was admitted alone (Inv. R. having preceded me by 10 minutes). by a woman who on my previous visit said that her name was Gladys and that she was the keeper.

I met another woman who on my previous visit said her name was Ruth.

Gladyas introduced me to two men, Dave,
and Walter who were in when I got there.

Walter she said was Ruth's steady
"Daddy".

Dave was her friend Gladys said but she didn't like him because he was not financially right.

Upon Leaving Gladys told me to come up & see her the following night and that she would show me a good "jazz" for $5.00. This was said to me out of hearing of Mr. R. S.

P.S. I bought and brought up a Quart of ice cream which I had promised to do on my previous visit.

Mrs Marshall Landlady)
Complaint

I was admitted into inside hall by a man whom I met in the outside hall, who was carrying in a piece of ice and who appeared to be the janitor. After I told him that I ~~looked~~ looking for Mrs Marshall he opened the inside door with a key and told me to wait in the hallway and that he would go and find her. After taking the elevator to the rear of the west flat on the 1st floor he went upstairs. In a few moments a woman came down stairs who said her name was Miss Marshall and that she was the landlady.

I told her that I wanted to see one of her roomers by the name of Mr Joyce. She told me that I must have the wrong number as she does not rent rooms, only furnished apartments, and that they were all rented.

I also noticed in the reception room at the south end a small writing desk upon which was 3 glasses of beer.

The small room I was ushered into contained a daynport, bath tub, shower screen and an adjustable small narrow table.

Miss Stewart closed the door and asked me if I was a Frankfurter man, my name and address, who sent me etc.

She said that she would give a lot to know how I came to ask for Marie (The name I did mention when she opened the door)

I became indignant, and started to leave. She explained that she had to be so careful and was very suspicious when I asked for Marie.

I told ^{her} I could go some other place and have a good time without being questioned.

She put her arm around my neck and said: "I will show you an extra good time if you stay". I said "what do you mean by an extra good time" she said "two good jazzis for $5.00".

same to be operating as a house of ill-fame

We were admitted by a woman whom
Inv. V. introduced to me as "Jeddy".

We found her alone and dressed ready to go out.

She said "Well hurry up boys I have got to go out." I replied "What do you mean hurry up?"
She said "go to bed of course" I asked her how much that would cost me and she said $3.00
