 On 2511 W. Madison St. Saloon Bar.
 Saturday Dec 22nd 1917.

In company with J.W. V
 I entered this place at about 10⁰⁰ P.M. and found about 120 patrons sitting at tables drinking various alcoholic liquors as well as two female entertainers.
 I observed both of these entertainers while singing and dancing. Shake their breasts and bodies, kick up their feet exposing bare skin at times and get and drink Schlitz beer with men at tables.

I saw a girl sitting at a table known to J.W. V as "Helmi".

I know Helmi gave J.W. V her telephone number and said to call her up, saying that she had lots and good news for him asking him to take her out.

In company with J.W. V I left 10³⁰ P.M.

 At about 12¹⁵ A.M. Ind R entered and took a seat with us. We were again solicited by same waiter to buy drink and were served with two (2) more glasses of "Jager Beer" and one cigar for which Ind R paid 20¢ per glass 15¢ for cigar and a 10¢ tip.
 I noticed on the bottle of this "Bevo Beer" that same was made by the Berghoff Products Co

 when referring to "Ethel" she called her Mrs. Brent.

Finally they recognized Ind V as being in the place about right week's ago. with a big black curly haired man. who said his name was Dagr. and she accused Dagr of ^{being} the man whom framed the robbery. which took place in her flat about six weeks ^{ago} taking from her, and two women friends money jewelry, and clothes,

When Ind V asked her if she was sure she was accusing the right man.
 Mrs. Love said "yes" the police have already caught our man. and are tracing the others down closely, and she said that the police also accuse the man, who said his name was Dave, of being the man who planned the robbery.

She also said that she had put up some money as a reward for the capture of the thieves.

During our conversation Mrs. Love answered numerous telephone calls, and soon two men rang the front door bell and were admitted into the hall way by Mrs. Love, saying they were two of Dick's, and ushered her to a room closed. After Dick V. had convinced her that he was alright etc. Mrs. Love gave us her card, and said to come back any day, any time after 11:00 P.M.
