Special Report of Ind X -
 On Investigator Z -

Thursday January 10th 1918

After instructions of Ind R. I left squad room at about 6:30 P.M. in company with Ind Z - and through out the evening Ind Z - conversation was as follows. particularly on two instances while walking west on Madison St. Girls unrespected passed us. Ind Z - said to me "would it be a violation of the rule if we pick them up and if we speak to them first," I replied "absolutely this would be a violation of the rule." under no circumstances are you supposed to take the initiative, it is absolutely essential that every rule is strictly followed. and under any circumstances you violate any part of the rules, it will be my duty to report you immediately. these rules comply to every investigator and must be enforced." I at about 8:15 P.M. while making a phone call

call on the 2nd floor at 1725 W. Madison St. a girl (age about 20 yrs) followed us up the stairs and stood on the 2nd stairway and 3-deliberately walked up to this girl and said,
 "is there anything being a fellow on Madison Street sent for it?"

On January 9th just Fred J. - asked me in the Squad room what I thought about the work and what my opinion was about "Billy" I replied "it was not a matter of salary either with me, I never did believe in vice, of course of all - four, and that I will put forth my utmost effort to remove vice." And my opinion towards "Billy" she is very progressive and a man of the highest caliber and understands the methods thoroughly and is liked by all the boys"
