Same to be operating as a disorderly saloon.

Sitting at a table next to our were two women who flirted with us, and then soon came and sat at our table.

They said their names were Dotty and Miss Keegan.

After soliciting us to prostitution, for which Dotty mentioned a price of $5⁰⁰, they invited us to their room.

after a round of drinks we left with them.

We were taken here by two girls whom we met at 2037 No Clark St arriving at apt. #211 I heard Dotty tell Inv. V. to hurry up and take his coat and hat off.

Miss Keegan insisted upon me staying for a short while only and said that she would give me a nice jazz for

came to be operating as a house of ill-fame

We were admitted by a woman who said her name was Nan and who acted as the keeper

She ushered us to a middle sitting room.

Soon 3 girls came in who said their names were Margaret, June & Billy. Two of them were dressed in kamionas and one in street clothes.

A Negro woman also came in who acted as the maid.

The girls solicited us to buy drinks and we were served with 2 bottles of Edelweiss Beer for which Irv. X

paid the maid $2.00.

The girls then solicited us to prostitute. Jane said their price was $7.00 which included the room.

As we were about to leave the Keeper insisted upon us buying another drink. We were served with another round which included 1 glass of whiskey for which I was charged $2.25. paying same to the maid.

I heard a girls + a mans voice in a front room. Nan said that the girl worked for her and that she had a trick with her.

I also saw a girl + a man in the kitchen.

P.S. We were taken to this place by a yellow taxi driver Car number 434. This driver stayed with us during our stay.

After being seated in the west section of the middle room, waiter No[#] 3 solicited us to buy drinks.

We ordered and were served with whisky gingerale highballs.

I tasted all drinks and they all tasted of whisky.

During our stay I saw 17 sailors and 7 soldiers. Many of them were drinking what appeared to me to be intoxicating liquors, and many of them appeared to be drunk.

The drinking was very suggestive. Louis Weiss was very active in seating the people.

The place was crowded.
