At a small bar in the front room we were served by a jewish appearing woman who acted as madam, with a round of soft drinks (This is the same woman whom Inv's D, X and myself secured evidence against April 12th 1919)

She solicited us to prostitution saying that a fuzz would only cost us $3.00 Each

She then ushered us into a rear room where two other women urged us to go to bed naming a price of $3.00

We were taken here by a woman who had solicited us to prostitution in a saloon at 335 So Dearborn St.

While half way upstairs they both demanded $2.00 of each of us before they would take us to their rooms.

For the reason that they became boisterous and noisy, and insisted upon us giving them $4.00 we left.

The woman I was with told me in the saloon that her name was May and that she charged $7.00 for a short time

They said their names were Mamie + Ruth

They asked us if we wanted to go upstairs for a fuck. When Inv. V said "yes" Mamie said it would cost us $2.00 each and that we would have to pay them 1.00 each there and then

While walking east on Van Buren St. at State St. in Company with Inv. V at about 11:00 PM I saw two women who apparently came out of Potthasts Liquor located at 4 West Van Buren St. as these women from their dress and actions appeared to be prostitutes we watched them as they walked east on Van Buren St.

At about the middle of the block between State & Wabash Ave. we saw Mr Webster, who was walking west, and the women exchange glances

The women continued east and stood on the North West Corner of Wabash and Van Buren St, where I saw them flirt with a number of men who passed

Soon I saw Mr Webster coming east on Van Buren and go directly up to the women. after the three talked a few moments the women walked away from Mr Webster (about 10 feet) and held a conversation. In a few moments one of them returned to Mr Webster and talked with him. The other woman continued north on Wabash Ave.

Mr Webster and the woman after a few moments talk walked to the curb. They boarded the first car going south. They sat on opposite sides of the car facing each other.

At 13th St. I saw the woman nod and motion to Mr Webster, and, just before the car reached 14th St. the woman signaled the car to stop by pressing the button.

She got up and Mr Webster followed. Both got off at 14th St. After a few moments talk on the car the woman hurried into the hotel on the corner which is the Bellrose at 1354 S. Wabash Ave.

Mr Webster stood in front of the Hotel about 3 minutes during which time he looked up & down the street as then entered. The time then was 11:15 P M

Leaving Inv V. to cover the hotel I went to a drug store and phoned Mr Thrasher telling him what I had seen.

I then returned and met Inv. V. at 11:30 P.M. we saw Mr Webster come out and walk north on Wabash Ave, after watching the hotel about 10 minutes we both returned to the loop where I phoned Mr Thrasher.

From all appearances Mr Webster was intoxicated.

Twice on the street, and, on the street Car Mr Webster was close enough to touch both of us.
