In the rear of this saloon we met an unescorted woman who said her name was Birdie. Birdie had a partially filled glass of beer before her.

We ordered a glass of beer which was served and for which I paid 25¢.

After I paid 5¢ left Birdie and I were served with three more rounds of beer for which I paid 20¢ per round.

Birdie then solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $3.00 and said I would have to pay $1.00 extra for a room. Birdie said she always takes her tricks to Mrs. Martin's rooming house at 41 N. 5th Ave. and invited me to go there with her.

Birdie also said that two other prostitutes hang out at this saloon whose names were Helen and Topsy.

Birdie and myself started for 41 N. 5th Ave. when we met two sailors in uniform who asked me to purchase 3 bottles of Edelweiss Beer for them. When I refused, Birdie said she would and one of the sailors gave her 50¢ and she purchased 3 bottles of Edelweiss Beer which she paid 45¢ for and gave it to these sailors in the rear of this saloon. They were drinking same when we left.

I obtained their names and addresses (See Special Report for names and addresses) from 5⁴⁰ to 6⁴⁵ P.m. and from 7⁴⁵ P.m. to 8⁴⁰ P.m.

In the rear yard of Pete Kelley's saloon at 411 Plymouth St. I saw two men of German appearance talking with seven sailors in uniform and I got up on the 2nd floor of a building opposite this saloon where I could watch them.

I saw these two men take money from the sailors, enter the saloon and return with a package which they gave to the sailors. The sailors removed the paper from the package which proved to be liquor (same shaped bottles as whiskey and brandy bottles) and the sailors took turns drinking from these bottles.

I saw sailors and soldiers at different times between 5⁴⁰ P.m. and 6⁴⁵ P.m. enter and leave this alley and obtain liquor through the aid of these two men of German appearance.

I did not see them receive a tip from the sailors or soldiers in any instance.

I entered this alley again at about 7⁴⁵ P.M. in company with G.W.R. and four men from 1st Deputy Westbrook's office and shortly after we found favorable hiding places. I saw two soldiers in uniform enter the alley and a civilian followed them. About 25 feet north from where I was in hiding with two other men I saw the civilian take a bottle from his pocket and give it to one of the soldiers who put it to his mouth and the civilian left the alley. We later found him in a saloon at 11 W. Van Buren St. and he was taken to the 1st Deputy's office City Hall. During the commotion in the alley I heard a bottle strike the pavement and found a broken whiskey flask where the soldier stood which was also taken with the soldiers to the city Hall. We also found liquor on the ground where the bottle fell.

While walking south in Clark St. at about

So. Clark St. and together they walked south in Clark St. Mr. Brombaugh and myself followed and watched these two men and saw the civilian enter four saloons leaving the soldier on the outside in each instance. The civilian entered the saloon at 77 W. Van Buren St. at about 9⁵⁵ P.M. and came out with a package in the form of a bottle under his arm.
After joining the soldier on the outside the two went up in a doorway at about one minute. When they left the door way the civilian was empty handed and the soldier was carrying a package inside of his coat under the left arm.

I approached both men and saw the soldier give the civilian 25¢ and I gave the civilian 10¢ for which he asked of me to get some coffee.

The soldier said his name was Ed

Fort Sheridan and is a Spanish American War veteran. He is about 5 ft 3-, 135 lbs.,

The civilian wrote his name on a card

The name is Oliver Mingen.

I entered the saloon at 77 W. Van Buren St. with Mr. Baumbaugh at about 10 P.M. and the bartender of Jewish appearance, 30 years old, 130 lbs. 5 ft 6 in, dark - said he sold this man

Soldiers and Sailors in uniform.

Saturday Dec. 1st 1917.

While on duty with Investigator V and A - I noticed four sailors in uniform talking with one man in civilian clothes at about 5 P.M. in front of a saloon at 128 So. Clark St.

We saw the sailors give some money to the civilian and the civilian entered the saloon alone. I followed and saw the civilian purchase some pint flask of Bourbon whiskey for which he paid 65¢. The flask was covered with thin paper. The man left the saloon and met the four sailors again on the outside of the saloon. Together the five men went into an alley where they stayed for about 25 minutes.

We then told us to sit in the last booth (located in the southwest corner of the room) which we did. Soon two girls came to our booth and sat with us and immediately ordered wine. I placed a $1.00 on the table to pay for the wine and the girls laughed. When the waiter served the wine one of the girls handed me a check for $3.00. I payed the $3.00 after a short argument and we tasted the so-called wine. The wine was of water color and the taste of wine was very weak. The waiter stood by and continued

Before this bottle was empty the girls (who

I told the waiter not to serve us with more wine yet which led to another argument that caused the waiter to harbor a feeling toward me. From then on until I called the waiter's sarcasm, the waiter ^{made} abusive remarks to both Mr. W- and myself. In spite of our protests against having more wine the waiter poured more wine from a fresh

Michigan Ave. Clarence also wrote her name and address on a check which she gave to me, (attached). and said that I can come over there any Sunday.

Soon the girls ordered another bottle of wine and I refused to pay for it. This led to another argument with the waiter and during the argument Inv. W- paid for the bottle to save

We also saw the head waiter talk with two young men at a table and usher them into separate booths. Soon each man was joined by a woman one of them being one of the singers. We saw them wrestling and the man with his hands under their clothes every time we looked over there.

This was done in the presence of the head waiter and two other waiters.

On our way out, when we asked for our hats and coats the head waiter said it will cost us 10¢ each to get them. We told him we spent all our money in there and he laughed and gave us our belongings.

Just in front of this place we met two young men who said they were from Indiana and that they spent $20.00 on two of the girls down 121 No. 5th Ave. Basement-front.

In company with Inv. W- I entered this place at about 3³⁰ P.m.

We were admitted by a man (about 40 years, 160 lbs., 5 ft. 5 in., and dark complexioned) into an adjoining ^{room} from the basement entrance, into a room directly under the sidewalk, where we found about 10 men standing around a desk handling money and talking about races. The man behind the desk whom

Inv. W- said is known as John appeared to be the keeper. (He is a man about 40 years old, 5 ft 4, 140 lbs., dark complexioned, black hair streaked with grey, wore a ^{black} derby hat and black overcoat.)

The latter mentioned, continually answered a telephone that is in a room partitioned off that is directly under the stairs that lead to the basement. After each telephone conversation he returned to his desk and call off names (apparently of horses) and hand money to the men standing at the desk.

We were solicited to play "rummy" and I played two hands to offset suspicion on account of me being a stranger.

We left at 4 P.M. and were let out by a man about 5 ft 10, 160 lbs., 50 years old, grey hair and wearing a black overcoat and dirty hat, whom I heard called "Candy".

In company with Inv's R and U, I entered the above address ^{at 9³⁰} and we sat at a table in the east side of the room.

We were solicited to buy drinks by a waiter known as "George" and we were served with one bottle of Edelweiss Beer and one glass of ~~Beef~~ Tea for which I payed 30¢ plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter.

We saw two couple leave the saloon by the rear door that leads to a rooming house over the saloon.

I also recognized a woman sitting with another couple at a table whom I know to be a prostitute.

Essences 40¢

 5-7 W. Delaware Place. (Delaware Hotel 1st fl.)

At about 10⁴⁵ P.M. I saw a man and woman leave a taxicab and enter the above hotel.

I followed them in and on the first floor a woman about 50 years old acting as the keeper said to this couple "my rooms are all filled up but one will be empty any minute."

The keeper then invited them into a waiting room and told them she would let them know as soon as a room was empty.

The taxi drove off before I was close enough to get the license number.
