Seems to be operating as a house of ill-fame.
We were admitted into a hall-way
by a girl, whom we met on the corner of Madison & Carpenter Streets.

This girl solicited both of us to
prostitution for the sum of $50.

She said, "be both of your boys

I know of one that is a hooker she is with a man, but I can get her telephone number for you.

He then left our table, and went over to another table where he talked with two women.

Returning to our table again, he gave me a telephone Superior 543 "Kathryn" and told me, that he had made arrangements with Kathryn for us.

Investigation.

On account of the fact that this place was well crowded, and we were unable to procure a table, we made a close observation of the place, finding several bottles of Edgewood beer standing by the water.

We also saw the patrons being served, which appeared to be whiskey and Hi-falls.

Investigations

While standing at the bar and drinking a glass of beer, I saw a girl and a man standing at the bar, each drinking a glass of beer, and appeared to be intoxicated.

After drinking part of their beer, this couple went into the cafe and sat at a table for a few moments, whereupon the man then came over to the bar, and asked the bartender which way it was upstairs, the bartender replied "this way."

I said the bartender usher this couple to the rear.

This place has a woman (a girl about 30 years and heavy set) bartender.

I was given this lead of James O'Brien of 3265 So. Halsted, a saloon keeper, and who told me that prostitution was practiced at this address.

and said, "No girls here, you may try across the hall."

We did so, and upon ringing the bell, a woman came to the door age about 35 years old and said, "Just wait a minute boys," etc. We did so, and waited.

We did so, and after waiting in the hallway for a few minutes, a negro maid came to the door, and admitted us into a dining room.

Soon a girl came in, dressed in fantastic who said her name was
"Tola."

Sola solicited us to buy drinks.
We were served by Sola with 1 bottle of "Edelweiss Beer" for which I paid $1.00 to Sola.

Sola solicited both of us to
prostitution, for the sum of $20.00
for all night. She said, "come back at 2 o'clock, the crowd will be all gone then, there will be two more girls, and we will have a good time, for you won't be able to sleep, for I will make you like it."

Sola urged us to stay, she said,
"Why won't you boys stay now."

Sola stated that she was one of the inmates, and had formerly run a house at 211 E 55th St. where she was arrested by the police.

She also stated, that two other girls stayed here, and who were out, and that the woman, whom was the keeper of the 1st fl. & was also the keeper of the 1st fl. 10, and that both of these flats were used for the purpose of prostitution.

the price.

While being seated with the girls, a man apparently the proprietor came over to our table, and tapped Lucille Zacks on the back, and said,
"this is Franchina, and she will treat
you all right."

We did not go upstairs, owing to the fact, that the women were watching us, and we did not want to meet with complication.
