It was to be a special day as a number of all friends
were admitted into a reception room by a woman agent at the principal who said her name was "Viola Mundy."

Viola Mundy solicited both of me to prostitution, she said "I have to be very careful here, but I will do as you wish for a night, but I have you first."

I know a young girl telling me with me
who will first take the girl for a night, [meaning my companion] and I will fix the up for $5.00."

When I asked Viola Mundy what the second cost was, she replied, "Oh about $15.00
for all night."

Viola Mundy gave me her telephone number as 2599.

 Investigation

After being seated and served with non-alcoholic drinks, I counted 30 women
 in room.

This floor was crowded and I saw very suggestive dancing, so called the shimmy dance, and couples rubbing
 their bodies.

I also said interviewing of patrons, were going to different tables
 and asked this woman to dance with them.

I saw young girls apparently about 17 years old, who were dancing in a suggestive manner.

Investigation

After being satisfied and armed with drink, I collected them receding room.

Two of these women came in at about 1140 P.M. and who were well known to the waiter, and I saw them flirt with him, as well as dance with him.

I also saw intermingling of natives.

Narrow sorts of intoxicating drinks
 are being served in this cafe, and which also has a thorough orchestra.

Investigation

Upon arriving at 19 No Morgan St,
we received no response, and found
door to be locked with a pad lock.

Upon arriving in the vicinity of 25 No Morgan St. A police officer in uniform #1470 approached me, that there was nothing doing any more, and that all the girls had to vacate.

During our conversation with this officer he related to me, that he had counted 240 men two weeks ago
who were loitering about the place.

Continued Report from Oct 5th to Oct 12th 1932.
 Vice and Liquor Investigation.

During the past week, I have made a thorough investigation of the vice element, and I am at liberty to state, that I have found this element to be undercover, and the lid screwed down.

It is much to say, that during my experience as an investigator, I have never found a cleaner city, as it is today.

I have also found, that dance halls, cafes and kick rooms of all kinds, are obeying the law in every respect, and that gamblers of all kinds have closed their places.

I have had a conversation with several of these so called vice kings, one for instance being Sol Friedman, a port bowman of the Frisco dance hall, and was told that vice was one thing of the past and that such could not be found in the city of Chicago.

Samson to be operating as a disorderly saloon.
I was taken to this place by a

After being seated, and served with

When I asked Will Anna, what she charged, she replied, "Oh a couple of

I also saw two unaccompanied women
in this place, who ordered and were served with beer and whiskey.

I am to be reporting on a house of ill-fame.
By appointment we met this girl in the corner of Broadway and Island Ave, where I had met and obtained address against on Friday October 4th 1918, at 120 So State St.
a Massage Parlor, Room 51-5th floor, who said her name was "Viola Mundy" and the other girl Viola Mundy introduced me
to a "Miss Bragge".

Viola Mundy suggested that we go to the Green Mill Garden located at 4800 Broadway.

There we had, and after being served with some drinks Viola Mundy suggested that we all go over to her apartment.

We did so, and were admitted into a middle reception room by Viola Mundy.

Viola Mundy solicited men to prostitution. She said "let me have an all night jazz party Saturday night."

When I asked her what she charged, she replied, "Oh about $15.00 do you think that is too much Jimmy."

Viola Mundy urged men to go to bed, she said "let's go to bed now for a short time."

At about 10:15 P.M., just as we were about to leave a knock sounded at the door and a voice said, "police officer open the door."

A man was admitted by Viola Mundy, who said he was a police officer from the Central Station, and that his partner was at the rear entrance and demanded that the rear entrance be opened.

After the officers asked us a few questions they then left the place.

NOTE:-

While being in the dining room with Viola Mundy, she dispersed her privates and said, "this is the dronest thing around here and worth the money."

Investigations

Arriving at this address at about 8¹⁵ P.M. I registered as Mr. J. Delaney & Elmo Akla, and was assigned to room 166. Leaving this address at about 8²⁵ P.M. I returned again at 10⁴⁵ P.M., and entered into a conversation with the colored Bill-Boy who said his name was "Adolph."

During my conversation with Adolph relative to women and etc, he told me that he knew of two women who lived in the hotel but who were not just now, and that he would send one of the women in my room as soon as they came in.

At about 1³⁰ A.M. Adolph came into my room, and told me that both of the women had returned with him, and that these men were going to stay with the women all night, but that he was going to see the women tomorrow night, and send over to my room.

came to the apartment as a house of ill-fame.
I was taken to this place by a girl
of Polish descent whom I accepted in the corner of Madison and Morgan and we were admitted into a middle living room by a woman age about 40 years
who the girl said was the keeper.

This girl solicited me to prostitution,
she said "I will give you a good foggy
for $2.00."

NOTE:-

This girl openly approached me in the street and solicited me to prostitution.

In the flat she told me that the police found what she was doing and that she did not have to pay the mark.

came to be operating in a disorderly saloon.

We were taken to this place by two girls, who accosted me, on the corner of Madison and Racine, who said their name were "Brose" and "Dinner".

After being seated and served with drinks, Brose solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $2.00. She said, "I am a good jazzie and will take you to a good place."

When I asked her, "where," she replied, "I take all my tricks to Butch Carroll's place."

Brose later told me, that we would have to come in through the rear, and that two men would meet us at the entrance, who would search us.

Joe V. suggested that we should not go to Butch Carroll's place, as the two men were irritatingly drunk.
