 Jones operating as a disorderly Saloon.
 Entering bar room we ordered and were served by bartender with a round of soft drinks and after a few moments of conversation with said bartender, he informed us that unescorted women were in cafe and that if we wanted to get acquainted to go in.

Entering cafe two unescorted women flirted and asked us to take seats, they gave their names as Thomas and Eva.

After being served with intoxicating drink
 by some bartender at 40¢ per drink, both women solicited my companion and myself to indulge in prostitution for a price of $5.00. I saw two other unescorted women.

Darwin Cove District

Sergeant Dickey

While on general observation in district known as between Ashland and Western on Madison I did not see any street solicitation nevertheless I recognized four well known prostitutes on Wood and Madison.

Through various sources I learned that all prostitutes were told by the Darwin Cove station to stay off the streets inasmuch that all houses of ill fame were supposed to be laying low at this time. I was unable to learn anything concerning subject.

While in night store at Pauline Madison I entered into conversation with Clark and was given a lead on a slip of paper to a well known house known as 2808 W. Madison which was supposed to be operating through police protection through the Darwin Cove station.

During the course of my investigation I was unable to learn the whereabouts of subject
