838 North Clark St. Saturday February 11, 2
 Cabaret 1st 10:00 P 10:40 P.
 Superior 3736 Lillian and 4 other Belvedere Cafe unseated women -
 a check girl, 3 women
 entertainers - 4 waiters
 about 30 patrons

alone

same operating as a disorderly cabaret
 I entered this place at about 10:00 P.M. and took a seat at a table.

Here I was served a glass of "Dago Red" by one of the waiters for which I was charged 60¢.

Following the serving of this drink, the waiter
 and another waiter offered to supply me with a girl.

I was then solicited by one of these waiters to purchase a whiskey high-ball whereupon I ordered and was served such a high ball for which I was charged 75¢.

Soon after this drink was served, one of the waiters mentioned ushered a woman who had just entered to my table and introduced me to each other as Miss Smith and Mr. Smith.

This waiter then solicited my woman companion to order a drink. He then asked me to buy another drink altho my glass was still about half full.

In response to this solicitation my woman companion ordered a whiskey high ball for which I was charged 75¢

Following the serving of this drink I was solicited by this woman companion who gave her name as Tillian, to indulge in prostitution with her for a consideration of $5.00 plus $2.00 for a room in a building across the street. She named an all night price as $25.00.

Soon after my companion drank the first whiskey high ball we were again solicited to indulge in more drinking whereupon my companion ordered and was served another whiskey high ball while I was served a glass of ice water for which I was charged 75¢ and 20¢ respectively.

While seated at the table I saw three women entertainers give exhibitions of dancing and various body movements, the movements of one consisting primarily of simultaneous inward and outward movements of the hips and revolving movement of the same accompanied by facial contortions exhibited as she looked down to the region of her sex organs and threw back her head and shoulders. Breast movements were included.

I saw two of the entertainers go thru movements of a similar nature both on the dancing space and while among the tables occupied by patrons.

I saw all three entertainers dance with patrons and saw two of them fondle men companions at tables.

One of the entertainers I recognized as a former entertainer at the Lincoln Cafe - 1859 N. W. Madison.

I saw four unescorted women besides Tillian my companion.

 At the top of the stairway I was greeted by a colored woman who asked me to enter a room opening off of hall near the top of stairs for the purpose of prostitution.

I entered this room and subsequently the front room with which this was connected and in which I met Johnson the keeper.

Soon after this I was again solicited
 by the colored inmate who evidently had been part way down the stairway to lock a door located there back of which I saw two patrons waiting to be admitted, which interfered with my getting the price.

These men were admitted by this inmate when she was impressed that I would not indulge in prostitution with her.

Following her recognition of myself and introduction of Dan. X as a friend of mine she solicited Dan. X to enter the house and indulge in prostitution with her.

I saw Dan. X ushered into the house and come out about a minute later.

This conversation was interrupted by

Note I inmates of house of ill fame in

Two men's visits.

At the time stated we paid a visit to the above named place at which Inv. X secured evidence of a house of ill fame recently.

In the hallway of the first floor I saw Inv. X engaged in conversation with a colored woman who was standing just inside the doorway of the front room.

The conversation was interrupted by the arrival of a colored man who was admitted by the woman. This man ~~apparently~~ was connected with this place.

Inmates of houses of ill fame in this neighborhood are very suspicious of more than one man.

On the 2nd floor (office) I met a woman back of the office desk.

Here this woman solicited me to indulge in prostitution or perversion with resident inmates she offered to supply.

This woman then ushered me to a room on the 3rd floor and in this room
in the presence of a resident inmate,
Alice, solicited me to indulge in prostitution
with Alice.

In this room I was subsequently solicited by Alice to indulge in prostitution with her for a consideration of $5<sup>00</sup>.

I gave her $1<sup>00</sup> as confidence.

Struck in the <sup>in this room</sup> bottom of the mirror frame of the dresser I saw a card certifying

that — (Bessie?) said by Alice to be an inmate had been examined and found free from venereal disease, Feb. 4 by Dr. D. V. Owens, 1614
 W. Roosevelt Road.

Alice informed me that inmates
 were examined for venereal disease
 twice a week.

I passed 3 men entering the Hotel as I was leaving. A. H. B.

Prostitution and Remorse of Alice

When the door to the room in which Alice was located was opened by the woman in charge of operations of this house of ill-fame (see evidence sheet this date) Alice was startled and leaped from the bed to her feet.

Apparently she did not have time to dry the tears that remained under one eye.

She informed me that she was very lonesome and asked me to sell her a newspaper which I had under my arm. I gave her the paper.

The expression on her face was one of remorse and mute appeal.

Her age is about 20. Her face was refined in appearance and she informed me that she does not smoke.

Apparently this girl is here against her conscience.

Disorderly Saloons

~~The~~ explored the ~~interior~~ of this place via the bar room where I saw a number of men patrons.

In the dining room where we were seated at a table we ordered dinner and here Inv. X ordered and was served a glass of whiskey for which he was charged 75¢.

While here I saw about 50 patrons 10 of them unescorted women.

I saw what appeared to be whiskey and wine served to numerous patrons.

I saw mingling of men and women patrons. This included caressing.

A number of the unescorted women cast inviting glances at Inv. X and myself.

I saw most of the women I observed smoking cigarettes.

I saw one man who appeared to be an investigator.

same operating as a disorderly cabaret
I entered this place and took a seat at a table.

Here I ordered and was served a lunch by a mulatto waitress.

I was soon joined by Helen who ordered some ice cream for which I paid.

While seated here two police officers from the Detective Bureau entered and arrested
a girl known as Virginia who was seated at a table next to mine. She had a companion called Ray.

Soon after this arrest Helen and I were joined by a girl introduced to me by Helen as Miss Du Fresnois who said she was registered at a Hotel as Mrs. J. Miller Superior 554 (This is Bradley Hotel, 536 Rush St.) See attached slip.

Miss Du Fresnois and I were informed by Helen 2.40

that Virginia is a prostitute and was probably arrested for hustling on the street.

Helen informed Miss De France in my presence that ~~there is~~ a police officer connected with the Detective Bureau by the name of Fireman who promised her that if she ever got into any trouble that he would get her out.

Miss De France ~~embellished~~ to go out with her at another time, ostensibly for the purpose of indulging in prostitution with her. She was visibly affected by the arrest of Virginia.

While here I saw dancing by the ~~officer~~ <sup>(cont'd 17 p. 19)</sup> in which the movements centered in those involving the sexual organs.

From about 9:00 P.M. to 9:25 P.M. I saw two other officers from the Detective Bureau in the place watching the patrons.

At about 9:30 I again saw Virginia who had been arrested and taken out by police officers earlier in the evening.

I saw a man who appeared to be the manager seated at a writing desk. I also saw another man who seemed to be an attendant.
