Sept 25 1915

Mat Quail, 710 East Thirty-ninth street, lost his license because a railroad employé complained he was robbed by a girl introduced to him by a bartender, because Joseph McRonald, known as the manager, struck a woman; and because William Tyrrell of Campus, Ill., said he had been robbed in the place.

Sept 25 1915

Joseph Fionda, 1050 West Van Buren, suffered a similar fate because he had a woman known as Mary White living in the rear room of his saloon, where she received men. Fionda is waiting trial on a pandering charge and on charges of receiving stolen cigars.

A west side saloonkeeper was sought by the Desplaines street police to-day as a result of an anonymous letter, received by Capt. Thomas A. Meagher last Friday, supposedly from a prisoner in the county jail. It contained information that gangsters were going to attempt the lives of Lieut. Patrick Gallery and Sergt. Daniel Cahill. The saloonkeeper was arrested Sept. 15 charged with pandering.

Henry Archibald, manager of the Richelieu Hotel, 2505 South Michigan boulevard, was arrested on a warrant charging him with harboring immoral women last night.

The warrant was sworn out by Sadie Chadwick, 4042 Calumet avenue, an investigator for the committee of fifteen. She charges that Archibald has been catering to immorality at the hotel.

Samuel P. Thrasher, superintendent of the committee of fifteen, said last night that evidence showing that immoral women were harbored at the hotel, which was formerly the Yorkshire, would be introduced at the hearing this morning in the Morals Court.

Archibald was released on bonds.

YEAR IN CELL, $1,000 FINE, ON ACCUSATION BY A GIRL.

Judge Fisher Scores Pander and Sentences Him to Limit When Music Pupil Tells Her Tale.

Three months ago Edith Scott came to Chicago from a small country town to study music. She met C. W. Scott, a waiter. He won her. Then Scott was arrested on a charge of pandering. Yesterday he appeared before Judge Fisher in the Morals court.

"You are a vulture," said the judge, "and I am going to give you the limit. You will serve one year in the bridewell and pay a fine of $1,000 and costs.

"The ordinary criminal drags down only himself, but you drag down helpless girls. No punishment is too severe for you."

The girl was arrested three weeks ago for accosting men on the street. She said she had been taught to do this by Scott. She gave her name as Scott, but it is not her real name.

BAD CHECK MAN TRIES TO 'NICK' S. P. THRASHER

Walter Hoffman, 19 years old, Detroit, will be arraigned in the South Clark street court today charged with having attempted to pass a worthless check for $3.25 on Samuel P. Thrasher, head of the Committee of Fifteen, and with having passed a bad check for $50 on the management of the Hotel Morrison, where, it is said, he also owes a room bill of $20. He confessed, the police say, that he passed four or five worthless checks in Detroit, where he is wanted. Mrs. Edward Hoffman, the lad's mother, now in Cleveland, formerly worked for the committee as an investigator.

The boy came to Chicago. He went to the offices of the vice committee Saturday and showed Mr. Thrasher a letter which he said had been written by his mother asking Mr. Thrasher to cash a check.

Mr. Thrasher compared the handwriting with that of Mrs. Hoffman, and upon finding that there was no comparison summoned Detectives Miller, Sloier, and Woodrick. When they arrested the boy he confessed that he had written the letter and also admitted having passed the bad check on the hotel management.

Several blank checks were found in his possession, and he admitted, the police say, that he intended to try to victimize others.
